Most I've ever made in one month was 20,000 purely from live streams but that's gone down so not nearly as much but enough to live decent

(Sep 7, 2020 09:45 PM)jecoylecroy Wrote: [\[CITE\]](#) How much time did you spend with your account mate?

I started posting full time in Jan but I've had like 6 accounts

1.1m -9 months

750k - 1 month - 600k of the growth was within 1 week time span

400k - 5 months

100k - two days

Etc

The one that grew the fastest got shadowbanned so they're basically useless until they get unshadowbanned so I had to keep making new accounts until tiktok finally got back to me on my main account and I was able to push that one over a mil from 800k in like 2 weeks

I'm making or strategizing new content for like 11 hours a day on average

I've been transferring my following over to YouTube slowly so in case it does happen I'm fine. We have until Nov 12th until they make any sort of decision the fact that the app store ban was blocked just means it's likely going to be fine but I have a backup in place anyways.
