I did. I suggested the same idea to many but people take this idea for a shit one. Legends loved the idea and here it is. The signature is made by me and anyone can use it by writing their own name.

Given you a plus rep and I'm posting to enter too. Just an interesting fact that I found the other day, that if you pour soda too quickly into your glass and the bubbles go all crazy and rise up, if you dip your finger into the bubbles, then the sodium on your fingers will cause the bubbles to retreat almost instantly so you can continue pouring without a mess.

Trying to take one more entry before it's ended. Thanks for the chance of joining.
