Method is not saturable!

Method can be repeated for $50k each time!

Method can be done multiple times simultaneously - Make $100k, $250k, $500k... The sky is the limit!

Method requires no daily time investment - Takes only 10 minutes to start and 10 minutes to finish!

Method is new, original, unique, and has never been sold before!

Method comes with a 90 day 100% money back guarantee - Just try the method and if you don't earn, get a refund!

Thread design will be kept up to date and current and will reflect the number of sales and current price!

Note: You will need an additional $150-250 for requisite supplies. Half of you will already have the hardware sitting in your office, or will have a friend who does, in which case you'll only need $150.

I bought it and read through it. OP answer all questions.

The method is crazy, I never heard from this anywhere and I would never come to this idea, but it's so fugging simple. It really need max 20-30 min of work. The method it self makes sense and I would say it will work for sure, but can't guarantee till I test it. It needs some time because I need to order something from us for this.

This is 100% blackhat, but I'm not seeing any risk at all.

If this works (and I believe in it) this is worth much more then he is selling it.

(Sep 4, 2020 07:54 AM)Datasense Wrote: [\[CITE\]](#) I took a leap and decided to purchase this method.

Here is my pre-review without trying the method since I have to purchase a specific product.

I've had my fair share of buying methods and I'm apart of communities/groups that share leaked methods and messages etc. I really haven't seen or thought of this before.

This method is indeed blackhat, blackhat because you're tampering with your specific product but there are ways to make it seem like the product wasn't tampered with (hard to explain but kinda genius). You do have to use your personal details to collect the payment.

$100 investment to receive $10,000 seems to be the average ROI cost, plus you need to invest in a specific at home item that is $50-200 depending on the model you get, and then you need to purchase a very specific item roughly $30-50.

I concur with atari, I'm not sure how you'll get caught since you will be the victim but again its blackhat because you tampered with your product.

I purchase a $100 vouch copy so I didn't mind gambling with the $100 but I'd say its worth it for me, I'm going to try this out once I get the product that is needed, you need a specific product.

(Sep 5, 2020 05:37 PM)Bromden Wrote: [\[CITE\]](#) If I had to describe this method with only one word it would be: original, very original.

I have never seen anything like this before. It is certainly not some reused, leaked and known method. At the time of this writing I can say it is indeed unique, original, and never before seen. OP has been thorough in covering all bases related to potential risk. There's definitely a healthy layer of plausible deniability in the extremely unlikely event that the method failed and even more improbable event that any litigation were pursued. It would be thrown out immediately.

There is one item that is only sold by a US company that must be purchased to make everything work so this might add a small delay to the quoted 2 weeks but 10-14 days is about right once you have the required items and put everything into practice. You can acquire the necessary items for around like ~$110. Those items can be reused to repeat the method dozens of times. If I recall correctly, the amount required to profit x amount of money is around 5% of the potential earnings, so in order to make like 1000$ you need 50$ etc... Those costs quickly become negligible once you see the payday.

I don't see this method being saturated since its basically like a loophole in the way said companies operate, is the best way I could explain it. To be honest OP should be charging more for this but I can understand where he is coming from and why he chose the pricing structure that he did since obviously people on HF cant afford to spend thousands, and since its basically unsaturable why not low ball the price.

To summarize, this shit is legit, it's definitely GH/BH (not sure) since you are exploiting a loophole in a company, not sure which one it is but take it as you will you're doing something that makes huge companies take a minor loss. Dont PM me with questions, I have not executed the method but I took a few days of inquiring before writing this up and my common sense + discussions with OP just sell me on the fact that this should most definitely work. If you have any other questions I guess you can reply to my post and I'll try my best to find time to elaborate without leaking OP's method.

Would you accept a middleman? I'll send the funds to the middleman, and he'll release them once I make $50,000. Shouldn't be a problem since according to you it takes 10 minutes, right? ?

Edit: I'll also touch on maybe the sellers possible reasons for pricing it like so, it seems obvious but I'll definitely touch on it.

Well it doesn't help when OP puts you as some sort of Testimony in the thread design before you even try the method or write the review.

Kill Joy - September 2, 2020, 9:25 pm

If anyone wants to know a fun fact... your retirement account would need to be worth $16,000,000 in order to make $50,000 every two weeks at an 8.45% return, which is more than a good average return in the market.

Edit: Stick with OP's method and you can make $1,300,000 in just a year! Oh Christ... that's a smart ass method!

This "shit" is entirely real and 100% legit. How much traction do you think I'm going to get charging $10k a pop straight out of the gate? That's why I elected to adopt a sales based, increasing cost per copy. Furthermore, my willingness to do business with a middleman, putting the safety of the buyer's investment first and foremost, should speak volumes regarding the legitimacy of the method and seller.

(Sep 2, 2020 09:17 PM)flavoral Wrote: [\[CITE\]](#) Well it doesn't help when OP puts you as some sort of Testimony in the thread design before you even try the method or write the review.

I apologize. I took one quote from our conversation on Discord and used it as more of a placeholder for content than anything else. I'll remove it and put it up again following Bromden's formal review.

make $25k/week.... sell a method to make $200

• Enlil Wolf • - September 2, 2020, 10:07 pm

I have one serious question for you (the seller) as I am trying to look at this from a completely logical standpoint. I can't fathom or even make sense of the fact that why someone who is making $50,000 every two weeks or $100,000 a month is interested to sell this elusive 'method' in a place like HF to begin with.

One can assume that what you are doing is either completely blackhat, it doesn't payout anywhere near as you emphasize and is something which may be very hard or impossible to do, to begin with. So, I'd kindly request you to shut this thread before someone reports your thread to Omni and the staff team for promoting something which could be anywhere from financial fraud to HYIP, pay $500, and make $100,000 in a month.

Regards.

An even more fun fact... you'd only need $12,362,610.74 in order to make $50,000 every two weeks at a 10% Annual Percentage Yield with interest compounded daily. This return can be realized by staking USDT at Nexo.io and it's federally insured!

Standard logic likely won't lead you to a sensible conclusion. That's probably because the fact that I'm selling it at all is due to extraneous circumstances. Sadly, being a generous and overly trusting individual oftentimes leaves me an easy target for unsavory characters with no work ethic or hustles of their own. That being said, last week my home was broken into and thieves made off with literally every piece of electronic equipment that I owned, my motorcycle, my valuables, my pointless little safe, even the still new in box DIY liquid cooling kit for my nearly completed SLI 2080ti gaming desktop. As lady luck would have it I managed to lose (or have stolen, since there were fraudulent charges on nearly every one of my cards) my wallet; All within a few days of rent being due. So, the past few days have been filled with calls to banks, cancellation and ordering of cards, filing claims, tracking (or trying to track) devices, and trying to maintain my never-been-evicted renter's history. As it stands, I'm still 2 cheap copies shy of making rent by tomorrow before it's late on the 4th and fees start piling up. Rather than wallow in misery and defeat I am trying to be proactive about my circumstances and decided to hastily throw together the shitty thread design you see above and post one of my own personal methods that has never been seen or sold before. I don't even have ID to walk into a bank or write myself a check. The most Wells Fargo would do is give me $200 based on a signature match - barely makes a dent in my 4k/mo rent payment. In any case, none of that is any of your problem, but fortunately for some of you it does open the opportunity to snag a copy of this unique method at a ludicrous $9,750 discount (based on Kill Joy's deadly accurate appraisal).

Cheers HF!

P.s. Why HF? Because I have a few highly reputable members on my Discord list and it seemed like the easiest route to take to get some immediate traction on an otherwise unfathomable product and price.

I will take the risk and buy the discounted copy.

Ok let me update:

I bought it and read through it. OP answer all questions.

The method is crazy, I never heard from this anywhere and I would never come to this idea, but it's so fucking simple. It really need max 20-30 min of work. The method it self makes sense and I would say it will work for sure, but can't guarantee till I test it. It needs some time because I need to order something from us for this.

This is 100% blackhat, but I'm not seeing any risk at all.

I took a leap and decided to purchase this method.

Here is my pre-review without trying the method since I have to purchase a specific product.

I've had my fair share of buying methods and I'm apart of communities/groups that share leaked methods and messages etc. I really haven't seen or thought of this before.

This method is indeed blackhat, blackhat because you're tampering with your specific product but there are ways to make it seem like the product wasn't tampered with (hard to explain but kinda genius). You do have to use your personal details to collect the payment.

$100 investment to receive $10,000 seems to be the average ROI cost, plus you need to invest in a specific at home item that is $50-200 depending on the model you get, and then you need to purchase a very specific item roughly $30-50.

I concur with atari, I'm not sure how you'll get caught since you will be the victim but again its blackhat because you tampered with your product.

I purchase a $100 vouch copy so I didn't mind gambling with the $100 but I'd say its worth it for me, I'm going to try this out once I get the product that is needed, you need a specific product.

Anyway not to sales trash but just my 2 cents.

If you read carefully you'll note that I have rent due before then and even if I were to receive a payout from my method, without ID, I couldn't cash the check anyways. You spelled explanation incorrectly, btw.

Finally someone else that confirming my opinion.

I received already messages that I'm a multi and fake vouched...

BTW, there are a lot of other ways how to use this method and earn smaller amounts too. I'm already in some other thing similar with this but with this special thing it's so easy to do it. This is so easy to use for other ways if you are a bit creative. It's still blackhat, but if you are good with it then this could be a goldmine.

Well I was curious what is all these about and decide to buy it.

To be honest with all of you it's 100% blackhat but if you play smart you can make money very easy with little effort and with few hundred bucks of investment.

Method is unique and never heard or even think about that.

Seller is nice guy, answer on all my question.

Personally I will not do that as I have my reasons but will find someone who will do that for me when I confirm that I can go with that in my country.

Can you really make 50k in 2 weeks, depends of the country where you living and your initial investment, but yeah you can make huge money.

Hm.

Population, so I've been told, means a vast amount on this website. It tends to mean who is kind, easy to talk to, and empathetic. Thus, anyone with negative reputation could be more alarming or potential in deception/scamming another user than someone with a higher score. The B rating simply shows if someone has scammed before or how often they work with someone, not their character. I'm sure people look at Rep before submitting a Contract. I'm sorry if that makes you cringe, but it's literally the whole purpose of the website's rating system.

I agree with a lot that is being said here. We all know the dreaded ebook methods with false promises and bullshit inflated numbers. Especially 50k in two weeks.

I'll put it to the test. Been around here for 10 years. Throw me this method to go over and review. Would help your case be more credible. As of now there doesn't seem to be much faith in this for very obvious reasons.

His response will be the same sad one repeated multiple times now. "I have people who vouched for me, if you want it, go ahead and buy it."

The only thing I am interested in is, what the guys who actually bought it have to show in terms of payment proof. It's nothing until that.

It seems nothing at this point. We will wait and see his response. If it's the same old shit we can concretely state the obvious. I have never seen "50k" in two weeks ebooks. Then he wonders why people are throwing shade at his credibility. If he wants to step up I'm willing to overlook it and call it what it is. We both know this "I got X amounts of vouches so it's legit" is nonsense. How many times have you seen that being said? Someone posts something for sale and their buddies all come vouch without using the product. ?

(Sep 16, 2020 03:10 PM)yolokopo Wrote: [\[CITE\]](#) Ok so I think I know what this is about.. Basically you are buying a item from a company, and you keep asking refund for that specific Item and that company he dont want to mention basically dont monitor 1-150$ dollars refunds, so this Item that costs around 100$ surprisingly can be refunded multiple times. This is based on all the replies and I came into a conclusion

Pretty sure it was outlined in this thread that was posted before what this method entails.

That method is 1-50k a day. ?

Essentially boosting high end shit and selling it.

ill keep my eye in this one. will wait for other to review first cuz this has to be exaggerated and if this does work, why tf are you even selling this method in the first place if ur making 50k in 2 weeks. doesn't make sense.

where's the proof of earnings aswell?

Vitaly - September 18, 2020, 9:16 am

You had someone purchase 2 weeks ago tomorrow, so hopefully they will come back and post a picture of their bitcoin wallet with $50k in it

Sakhill - September 18, 2020, 1:21 pm

Well I was always honest with all my reviews and I can say that this is not exit scam.

I was make few test and will not work in my country, but have friend in UK and there will work.

Still try to figure out how we can make that, as no one want put his real name into that because you have to use your or someone else name to get paid.

In whole thing you are victim, I was check google and didn't find some results that someone was make money in that way, so it's pretty much great idea but it's blackhat as you trick huge companies.

I would like to say that is not 100% risk free, and the best way is that you find some local junkie who will do few things for you, I had that plan, but unfortunately after few test I was realize that this method will not work in my country, but as I said will work in UK.

Also to get all these money will take more than 2 weeks, if you are out of USA.

I was check all information which I need for claim 50k$ and for 50k$ I should invest about 1k$

So I can't say that is scam but maybe soon I will try it with friend in UK but smaller amount, just to test it, but as I said will take probably 1 month to set everything, maybe more as I am on holidays.

You got answer of me there, then you just hit me up with msg that there is 35k$ earnings in last 24h, I ask you for proof you was disappear as someone was already mention.

Next thing if someone was buy this method 1 month ago, I don't know how is possible to get payout that fast, as I was contact few companies which should pay you out, and by their information there is no chance that you will get paid that fast.

But as I said, maybe in other countries is different story, I just say what I was find out for myself atm.

If someone was make 35k it's time for proofs, even you have enough time to fake them, but yeah anyway :)

Yes, sorry about the mixup with that message, it was meant for Telegram from a different project. I mentioned it above in another post. Please disregard it as it has nothing to do with this method. Sorry again!

None of my methods require theft or boosting, reselling, arbitrage, refunds, or anything of the sort. This method is completely new and unique.

Hugh Hefner - September 19, 2020, 9:39 am

Well it is time I post a review on this method and -_- himself

From the beginning, I was very suss about this method, especially the elaborate story around getting broken into, yet having piles of money in a photo. Still, I was incredibly intrigued and decided to see what this was about.

The method is unique to anything I have seen on Hackforums before, mainly as it's such an offline thing. However, I have no hesitation in saying that this method involves fraud and you should steer far far far away. When I argued him on it, he started to try and convince me that I would be fine if I ended up in court with statistics around people who go to prison on a first offence. Really insane.

This is as blackhat as they come and should have no involvement with Hackforums whatsoever and if you were to attempt this yourself, get ready for 10 years in prison for 50k. You really will need to be an absolute moron to try this.

He offered a refund 10 days ago and he has yet to pay it due to having my money in his 'investment portfolio', so I will forfeit that to post this review and hope that he disappears from this forum.

I am 90% sure he has schizophrenia or is just a compulsive liar to the degree of having a mental illness. It is not normal to have so many stories that do not add up, and so many lies to different people. I hold no prejudice towards people with mental health problems, just please tread carefully.

Stop lying to people man. It's pathetic. You sent it to me too, you sent it to everyone. Thank you for your honest review and update to the current scenario of the things going on in the background. It is just as I doubted.

One who could make $50,000 every two weeks wouldn't be selling it for the price he is selling it at no matter how bad of a condition he was in.

If you would be kind enough to inform the Staff to close this down and report him for trying to sell something which is completely Blackhat and one that risks the users who buys the 'said method', that would be great and you'd be doing the community a service. Failure to do so would allow a person like him to lure unsuspecting victims to fall for something which it is not as he described.

Regards.

Didn't know that this is go against HF forum, my bad.
Will send report as well.

As I said in my first review (and in that one yesterday) I won't do that on my name as is not risk free, but it's not that hard to find junkie who will do that for you and you are clean.

You can have problems with the law if they catch you, but yeah it's up to you.

10 years jail is too much, and even if is go on court you will not finish in jail, but you will have to give money back, pay huge penalties and get criminal records.
