Proof that I spoke to correct HF user can be found here Spoiler (Click to View)

Threaten me to ddos my website Spoiler (Click to View)

Got my site offline for a few minutes, the attacks stopped after that, the user also removed all his messages he sent to me on Discord and decided to block me.

Don't deal with this guy and try to stay away from him since he is a very childish user.

(This all happened yesterday, I didn't have time to make a thread until today.)

EDIT the guy in question is a big multi in HF, check thread

I can't believe DDoSing is still a thing in 2020, I thought that was 2015 stuff.

.Alpha. - September 4, 2020, 8:19 pm

Imagine calling someone childish after trying to pick a fight with them when they didn't even bother you.

I can speak on behalf of multiple people where you gave us a bad service, we decided to ask about it because you ignored us, and then you proceed to ban us from your discord and give us -5 for the same reason of "being childish".

Stop trying to pick fights with other users just because they are a competitor. You're the one spreading negative energy here and acting childish.

harassed him indeed, because he sales trashed, but his actions are still illegal.

What happened in my discord is offtopic bluud had nothing to do with it, that was my service and my customers that acted childish in front of everyone "laughing when losses came" I did the right thing to ban them from discord however they still had access to view the predictions on my website which they paid for. I offered good service all the time, however when someone is acting like a kid and flaming the discord then I need to take action.

Stop defending someone that committing illegal actions on the internet.

Yeah, he wrote on my thread that I was a bad tipster, he even showed print screen and also commented on ppls post on my thread saying "I am sorry to hear that you lost" All this because he wanted to advertise his own service in my thread (He had a signature linked to his thread)

I found it annoying and decided to report it because he does not comment because he is sorry that people lost, its because he wants them to join his service.

After a report, his comments got removed and he got a 1-week ban, and then the hell started.

underage kids and gambling? Can you please elaborate? I used to have csgoarena many years ago, how am I supposed to check all customers age? That is not illegal also to gamble with virtual items where I come from.

However, ddosing is illegal, how can you defend a criminal?

I Am going to get negged for this but I have to say it...

After a conversation with bluud on discord he has cleared up on the "ddos" allegations. It was a joke and it was left at that, the user has harrassed bluud with harmless insults which is what he was replying with -- harmless insults, while it's wrong to have said that, a simple whois search shows the registrar who offers free ddos protection on their hosting plans. Now that that is out of the way below is an imgur album of all insults malfoy has said towards bluud

Imgur album here: <https://imgur.com/a/4VI7NBK>

Now, past bluud's point. Here is my personal experience with OP:

I bought his service and it is awful. I wouldn't recommend anyone buys it. Many more bets lost than won and no risk management strategy included.

Funny how you show my "harassments" but never showed what he wrote to me :)

Funny how you know that it was a joke that I got ddosed.

Well, it seems like you know everything without any kind of proof, why don't you take the role as a God over this planet?

Regarding my service and that you think that it's awful, why did you not request a refund because on the TOS it says that you are eligible for a refund if the bets have been unprofitable for you during a monthly period?

I am not stupid, I know that bluud got in touch with most of my customers and told them to write bad stuff on my thread etc including you (There's not a surprise that you are now writing on this thread protecting him together with another customer of mine Alpha Male, I know for a fact that he told many of my previous customers to leave a bad review on my thread)

I love how you say "It was a joke that I got ddosed" and playing alongside with him.

How is my service bad? When you first joined we had a very successful start with a lot of wins but you never placed any bets, and the strategy is to place every bet I put up.

You, later on, made a new subscription on my service and had a bad start, please read this TOS you accepted it before you made a purchase on my website

Those tos are also included in the HF contract you made when you purchased my service.

Your evidence of my service is shit is based on a few days, but the funny part is that you are not angry because of the losses, you are angry because I kicked you out of my discord group which I did not regret, you acted like a child and flamed the group every time we had losses, I kicked you from the group and I did not regret that.

Yes you are correct. I am not angry because of the losses. I know that because it is gambling/betting.

I am angry because you expect us to not ask anything after you lose 18/20 bets. And when we do ask, you decide to ban us for "spreading negative energy and flaming". I do not regret my review at all.

You are literally the instigator in every single argument here. All I see is you posting on other competitors' threads trolling around purely for the intention of fucking with them.

You should change this community alert title to:

Roberto Scorpius Malfoy uid=3411137 Harassing sellers in marketplace.

That would be more fitting.

Stop harassing other people if you can't take their their response without crying.

I replied to all questions you guys had, you got banned because you were flaming the chat with "Lmfao another loss" "Lmfao now esports betting" it came to a part where you guys cheered for losses that is disrespectful towards me and the rest of the members on the discord group.

Also here's proof that you are a funny dude, buying my service but doesn't place the bets

Then you decided to come back and we had very bad days, then you decided to write a review that I am bad at what I am doing which is the most unfair review ever. This service is a long term investment, you are not supposed to become a rich man the first days you join it, that's the reason why I have a page for only the strategy and how to understand sports betting the smart way.

Sure okay, I said that. What about Vamps who wanted your reasoning behind the bets who you decided to ban instead?

I wasn't even subscribed at the time I sent that message lmao.

As I said before and I'll say it again. $50 didn't mean much to me and I was going to let it go given the lacklustre results. However, the fact that youre shady as fuck and don't allow us to ask any questions in the group about your bad bets/loss streak pisses me off and quite a few of your customers who have all left by now. Add that on to the fact that you delete our discussion of calling you out of your loss streak/bad bets. What are you trying to hide? It seems like you know your service is bad but you want to try and trick new subscribers into the one off days where you are on a win streak.

You had a subscription at that time, I remember that you bought a subscription before this one.

What do you mean with allow us to ask any questions? There's a ticket system on my website have you ever tried to use it? Because I can not see any tickets that I haven't replied to, the discord group is to get help, lets to say I post a bet, and then you have questions about the bet I will help you to choose the correct bet so you are not committing mistakes.

I got three new customers today, and I have a few that got very happy that I kicked you from the discord because you were disrespectful towards me and them by laughing at the losses.

My service is not bad at all, you were unlucky to join us when I had a bad losing streak and it can actually happen because I am a human being.

"Sure okay, I said that. What about Vamps who wanted your reasoning behind the bets who you decided to ban instead?"

You don't know anything about what Vamps wrote, he got answered on most of his questions until he started to act like you childish and flamed the group, he could easy create a ticket and ask all his questions or dm me privately if he had any questions.

Read again my post and check out if i even mentioned him or his activities. It doesnt have anything with him, I was talking about u

I'm just saying u are complete jerk and I don't feel sorry for you at all

Peace

Few ISP in France have been shutdown by DDOS some days ago, it still a thing if you have enough machines I guess

What do you mean with allow us to ask any questions? There's a ticket system on my website have you ever tried to use it? Because I can not see any tickets that I haven't replied to, the discord group is to get help, lets to say I post a bet, and then you have questions about the bet I will help you to choose the correct bet so you are not committing mistakes.

I got three new customers today, and I have a few that got very happy that I kicked you from the discord because you were disrespectful towards me and them by laughing at the losses.

My service is not bad at all, you were unlucky to join us when I had a bad losing streak and it can actually happen because I am a human being.

"Sure okay, I said that. What about Vamps who wanted your reasoning behind the bets who you decided to ban instead?"

You don't know anything about what Vamps wrote, he got answered on most of his questions until he started to act like you childish and flamed the group, he could easy create a ticket and ask all his questions or dm me privately if he had any questions.

If anyone wants to see what OP said in relation to ddosing

Regarding the messages about the ddosing, at that time I was not ddosed, and I don't have Cloudflare on my website, I tried to trick him into it so he thought he had the wrong ip.

Oh no how does it feel to be wrong.

Doesn't feel anything special, I thought you had a monthly subscription.

So he probably deleted the messages because he got bored of talking to you? I wasn't there so I don't know. I'm sure he would explain if you chose to make this post when he could reply instead of acting judge jury and executioner while the person in question can't even reply.

Now I answered your question what about mine. Since you said you do offer refunds if the person made a loss (which I did) will you honour that or not now because I "disrespected you" by disagreeing with your practices...

You can not request a refund here, you request a refund through the ticket system on our website.

Edit do you still think he only deleted the messages because he got bored of me?

Check his other community alert he is exposed!

That doesn't really pertain to this thread, it is a different matter to the points I have raised.

bluud was pretty chill with me, we'd hangout in the lounge but this is unacceptable, unprofessional, and very immature.
