Corleone™ - September 8, 2020, 8:10 am

Hey everyone,

As the title says, let's see which website members here use to gamble their coins.

TBH, I am looking to see ideas, the experience of people about legitimate sites and a fake one.

Sportsbet.io and stake.com are the good ones I know of.

Are they legit?

I remember playing poker on 'Seals with Club' but they were taken down by FBI. However, they were legit back then.

I have only really seen sportsbet.io - made an account a few weeks back myself.

Fortunejack.com

Fast deposit / withdraw, nice bonus things (wager requirements though) and a broad variety of games to play.

Poker, Slots, Blackjack and more.

Stake.com and Gigabet.com, you can try them both.

I also play dice and hilo at Wolf.bet, it has daily faucets to claim too.

Is there a site with BTC where you can play a normal poker (against other people) not against the dealer like most of the casinos offer. Been looking for quite some time stake.com is interesting and its support is super cool in the chat and generous with the players.
