Thread: I will buy any method, do it for 30 days, and write a 5000 word review

bobbytacos - September 10, 2020, 9:25 am

Hi everyone, long time lurker on HF only recently just started posting. I have been writing for years and am pretty good if I do say so myself. Native English speaker from USA, blah blah blah.

I have been looking through the marketplace trying to sift through the different money making methods and trying to make a decision. It's a bit overwhelming.

So I figured that in order to make things more interesting, I would offer to buy any method currently on the market right now, try it for 30 days, and then write a 5000ish word review of my experience.

I've done this before with a software tool that I used to use to do cold outreach. I don't think I can post links here but if you want to see it PM me and I'll send it to you.

This goes for any type of product: blackhat, whitehat, mentoring, ewhoring, whatever.

If you've got a legit product/service and are interested in this, reply here or send me a PM. I'm still under 25 posts so I can't send PMs.

Thx

I can sell you one. I came upon the concept a few days ago while searching for something totally different. It's a decent reselling technique.

Will be a wild ride since most "methods" really aren't good lol

In my total time of HF, I've seen many e-books.

Some actually are. But they NEVER EVER make you what the sales thread claims you will.

You can always expect 20% of what the thread says.

I wouldn't agree with that 20% as most methods really have 0 value and are public, saturated, recycled, etc.

In my experience only 5% of the methods that were sold were kinda good, but you will never find a very good method for sale, cause it doesn't make sense to sell it. You risk it gets patched/saturated. If a method makes you loads of cash, you just keep it for yourself. Simple as that.

'Most methods'

Bro, we're talking about paid methods on HF. Not your average free money making PDF that your grandmother wrote in 1948.

I'm willing to say that you haven't bought that many methods.

A method making you $100 a day can turn into $500 a day by selling it.

Most 'entrepreneurs' who make money off of their shopify business actually generate most revenue with training and giving courses.

Mark Ronson - September 18, 2020, 4:38 am

You're ignoring the fact that methods that are for sale often are public or semi-public, so I don't see much difference in paid or free methods. Sometimes methods that have been leaked were worth more than those selling here. I have seen many leaks of HF methods and saying that I wasn't impressed is the least...

interested to see what comes your way. Hopefully you don't get thrown some crappy products. Looking forward to following this journey. good luck!
