Thread: Possible Affiliation with a Scammer BEWARE! uid=4567246

Anonymous_22 - September 13, 2020, 10:08 am

Hello,

A bit of Context for everyone who is reading. Before anyone rants, I know the person to blame is no other than myself, and so I'm just here trying to warn the community. I will be providing images for proof.

I posted a thread <https://hackforums.net/showthread.php?tid=6108871> Looking to get an access for an industry Report. I got a message by this user <https://hackforums.net/member.php?action=profile&uid=4567246>, to message him via telegram or xmpp. I message him via Telegram and told him what was needed. I was referred to someone by the name of @droops_1337 (Telegram), the User stated "The guy i sent you is legit. Trust me lol, but he'll charge you for sure". He also gave me the person's Website Optakedown / Vouches Vouches Before I sent the BTC I asked the person that referred whether the guy will pull through he said "yes mate, this fella is a real bh"

I messaged the user that was referred and told him I need an account to access two industry reports. He asked me about my budget and I said that I pay for quality work and that the person will be compensated. We both agreed on $150 BTC. I asked for proof if he could get access, he goes on saying about "I can get access to any account, Don't hesitate about my skill, I have a team". Furthermore, he says that account credentials will be sent within few hours. I sent the released the BTC to his address and sent proof that I sent it.

Long story short, User deleted me off on Telegram and person that referred is ignoring. Please be aware that the scammer has Discord server to imitate a Legit service.

Thanks for the community alert but people who dont use the contract system and deal offsite will get scammed for sure regardless of this thread.

Considering you are new to HF, I suggest for all future deals you use the contracts system otherwise nothing can be done about it. Not that HF will refund you or anything, at most they disable or shut down the account who does shady things like these.

Good luck and sorry for your loss.
