This has now become an informational thread for the crew Exalted, recruitment is currently closed until further notice.. Previous Application Form \(Click to View\)

This will be the recruitment thread for my new crew Exalted.

There will be no buyins by any means, prove you stand out from the rest and you may be welcomed.

I'd like this crew to have a high-status reputation, a place where members can see that userbar and know you've built a legacy of trustworthiness, loyalty, and honesty amongst the forum.

If you'd like to apply and put your name in for consideration please use the following format. Please note this is passive recruitment, I will be in contact with you if I find you have the potential to join.

Code When and why did you join Hack Forums?:

What are your strengths and/or skills?:

Why do you want to join Exalted?:

What makes you stand out from the rest?:

What do you consider to be the most important trait in a person?: Feel free to PM applications if you'd rather.

5/10 Spots taken.

Poet - September 19, 2020, 5:44 pm

Oh man i love your art :D

-When and why did you join Hack Forums?:

Joined last month, the goal was and is to connect with like-minded people and grow together as people and financially.

-What are your strengths and/or skills?:

I know multiple languages for speaking with humans and computers, can code with security awareness, automate business workflows, do some design, i'm fast, hardworking, trustworthy and consider myself as a pretty cool headed person.

-Why do you want to join Exalted?:

I feel like you're about to have a crew of good people that would be worth connecting with and i would like to be part of it.

-What makes you stand out from the rest?:

I think my skills and other qualities will eventually make me stand out

-What do you consider to be the most important trait in a person?:

Personally, i consider trustworthiness to be the most important trait in someone.

All game activity is going to be optional, but absolutely something that members can involve themselves in under the crew name. I personally play both games semi-regularly, I'm actually working on achieving my medal of honor award in hack game at the moment.

Verdande - September 19, 2020, 10:33 pm

When and why did you join Hack Forums?:

I joined officially on June of this year, I have however been looking through the site for many years. I came to HF in 2009-2010 as my ex-girlfriend was an avid member of the forum. Sadly she passed away in 2015 after struggling with depression, and needless to say I had a hard time visiting this site ever since, and I mustered up the courage to register in June, as the date of my arrival had something to do with it.

What are your strengths and/or skills?:

I love to do GFX design but I am psychologist by profession, I studied criminal-psychology and worked many years in a psych-ward as-well as a crematorium. I Have had a lot of experience in the school of life like most people, perhaps handed to me in a little more potent version.

Why do you want to join Exalted?:

Same reason you are reading this, it peeked my interest. I love being a part of something bigger than myself, without sounding too dramatic of-course, I want people to come together and share experiences in and about life.

What makes you stand out from the rest?:

I think I do a little bit of both depending on the situation, I don't mind blending in with a crowd nor stand out among the rest. I feel like far too many people focus on where they stand not just from their own POV, but also others.

When people ask me where they stand with me, I usually answer "wherever you put yourself", cause someone is soon to let you know if you are in the way.

What do you consider to be the most important trait in a person?:

Transparent-loyalty, I do not waste mine or anyone's time by telling lies or lure someone into a false sense of comfort,

I wish people were as direct with me as I am to them. I do like to write and tell stories, there's nothing wrong with blowing certain details about your life out of proportion for entertainment value, as long as your true intentions comes shining through.

Mr. Corleone - September 20, 2020, 4:15 pm

When and why did you join Hack Forums?:

Originally in 2008/2009. I joined to learn how to phish habbo accounts, just like everybody else.

What are your strengths and/or skills?:

I've got great people skills, speak 4 languages, I have 150 WPM, I know a lot about almost anything on the internet.

Also, you can always depend on me being available since my work & school is mostly from home.

Why do you want to join Exalted?:

Besides flexing a userbar, I want to be challenged. I need people who are better in certain areas to motivate me.

When I'm in a community, I tend to do a lot for those people. Simply because that's what drives me.

What makes you stand out from the rest?:

Can't really put it in words. You'd have to have a long conversation with me to understand and see my point of view on life.

What do you consider to be the most important trait in a person?:

Loyalty. I don't really care about anything else. In real life, I hang with people spreaded across different points on the social ladder spectrum.

They are all loyal to me, as I am to them. To get this mentality took some falling and failing. To actually manifest these people around me took dedication and trust. And I've come to learn that that's the most important trait. Loyalty.

Fortunate - September 21, 2020, 4:50 am

When and why did you join Hack Forums?:

I joined Hack Forums in May 2016, after being a long time lurker on the forum. One of my good friends introduced me to the forum after teaching me how to make money by selling Xbox LIVE membership codes.

What are your strengths and/or skills?:

My main strenghts are photo- and videoediting, marketing and private investigation. I was also introduced to the world of cryptocurrencies, urging me to invest in many coins back in the days, even allowing me to buy my first car in early 2018. I'm also great at writing and have a creative mind.

Why do you want to join Exalted?:

You seem like a very chill dude and would like to be better friends with you. I don't care about Hackuman or the Hack Game and haven't touched them in a long time. I'd just like to be a part of a community.

What makes you stand out from the rest?:

I'm just a laid back guy who gets shit done. I don't want arguments with anyone, in fact I hate it. I have my guns ready but I've never really had to use them. Most of the people here chase something, whether it is money or fame. We all love money but I don't really care, it just comes and goes like most of the stuff in life. I'm here forever, not just for the treasure.

What do you consider to be the most important trait in a person?:

Patience. We all hate when things take forever but sometimes you just have to take a step back. You can be patient yet want quick results. Your desire to get things done will undermine your effectiveness and that's what most people seem to forget.

I've reviewed some applications and have made some considerations as well as some new additions.

Sugawara - September 21, 2020, 10:20 am

When and why did you join Hack Forums?: Joined back in 2011, was recommended by one of my online friend and it's been an amazing journey post that.

What are your strengths and/or skills?: I'm a full-stack web developer, who is interested in all things internet. I've had some experience with social media marketing and running an ecommerce store.

Why do you want to join Exalted?: I'm always in for communicating with people around the net and looks like this crew promises that and obviously for that kickass userbar.

What makes you stand out from the rest?: I'm the one who is looking out to learn some new stuff who follows a student forever approach and wouldn't mind to contribute with the same wit. Also, with all that, I'm an anime fanboy.

What do you consider to be the most important trait in a person?: Kindness.

"Whether one believes in a religion or not, and whether one believes in rebirth or not, there isn't anyone who doesn't appreciate kindness and compassion." - Dalai Lama

When and why did you join Hack Forums?:

I Have joined Hack Forums back in June 2016.

What are your strengths and/or skills?:

My skills are Entrepreneurship and Marketing. The ability to sell something.

Why do you want to join Exalted?:

You mentioned that you want people to know that a person is Loyal when they see he is part of the Exalted Crew. That is me. Loyalty is in my nature, trustworthy is what I build in all of my brands because as long as you are loyal to your friends and clients, they know what to always expect from you, and they know that your word is true.

What makes you stand out from the rest?:

My experience on this forum, my skills in Art, Design, Marketing, Social Engineering and Real Life Job Situations.

What do you consider to be the most important trait in a person?:

Honesty. If a person is Honest with himself and with others, then he can achieve anything in life. If a person is dishonest, sure he will get by in the beginning by lying to himself and others, but at some point, his lies will become visible and he will hit a brick wall.

MarvinMalware - September 25, 2020, 9:13 am

Hoping to take in another member over the weekend, I'll be reviewing apps here and in my PM. Someone will be contacted shortly, still welcoming new considerations.

When and why did you join Hack Forums?:

I joined on the month of May, I joined the forums to find ways to make money online, that's when I found eWhoring.

What are your strengths and/or skills?:

I would say that one of my skills are that I am very good at Social Engineering, I feel like I have been good since at this for a while but recently found a way to monetize it, which was when I signed up for eWhoring. I also was running my own services with multiple clients and partners so I'm good with marketing and communication within businesses.

Why do you want to join Exalted?:

I would like to join Exalted because I would like to discuss methods and learn from other people as well as teach people new skills when it comes to eWhoring. I can also provide my private plug for eWhoring such as my landing pages and my traffic.

What makes you stand out from the rest?:

I feel like on HF most people are sort of selfish when it comes down to it, I work as a team player and make sure all my friends eat in the end. It's all about the community and friendship for me.

What do you consider to be the most important trait in a person?:

The most important trait in a would person would be empathy. Without empathy many people would be ruthless but this is such a basic human trait that some people lack, which is surprising.

This group looks amazing and I would love to join it and help with its progression over the months and years. Thank you

10tick - September 26, 2020, 3:55 am

When and why did you join Hack Forums?: I joined some 6 months ago almost

What are your strengths and/or skills?: I play some esports titles at a high level but kinda quitting now, I am currently doing a course in computer science. I come from a family of investors and I mostly invest in crypto, that being my main skill. I like to throw money at stuff - investing is my thing I suppose.

Why do you want to join Exalted?: Seems cool, sick art and my world view alligns with that of the group

What makes you stand out from the rest?: I am prepared to do anything to attain my goals, although will never forget those who helped my and represent morals at all costs.

What do you consider to be the most important trait in a person?: Honor. Quite simply.

What are your strengths and/or skills?: Business, investing & philosophy

Why do you want to join Exalted?: "For those who exalt themselves will be humbled, and those who humble themselves will be exalted,"

What makes you stand out from the rest?: Nothing is higher than the Truth

What do you consider to be the most important trait in a person?: Honesty

MarvinMalware - September 28, 2020, 9:47 am

Draffish - September 28, 2020, 10:02 am

I don't know if you can apply to different groups? can u? I'm not in one yet.

I also have a giant feeling that I'm not good enough... but anyway:

When and why did you join Hack Forums?: Two days ago to learn more about hacking

What are your strengths and/or skills?: I'm curious and like to learn... more than that i don't know

Why do you want to join Exalted?: Because it seems like a good crew, even though it seems to require a higher level of knowledge than what I have.

What makes you stand out from the rest?: I don't. I don't have knowledge and just know programming. I just want to blend in and do my stuff. There is strength in being in the shadows

What do you consider to be the most important trait in a person?: Honesty. If someone isn't honest then you can't trust anything else. He just shows you the side that you want to see

MarvinMalware - October 5, 2020, 9:08 pm

SIM-1980240 - October 10, 2020, 6:01 am

When and why did you join Hack Forums?

I first joined HackForums back in 2013, but I had been browsing the forum without an account since 2011. I joined HF for the community and made friendships with people of various interests in computers like myself.

What are your strengths and/or skills?

My entrepreneurial skills are the most valuable to me; I have a formal business education and currently have partnerships with several businesses that I started in the cannabis industry. I also created a few marketing businesses that I either run by myself or with a small staff. I have always treated my computer skills more like a hobby; I enjoy programming (Java, Python, C++/#, Basic) and offensive cybersecurity in general.

Why do you want to join Exalted?

I liked the aesthetic of the user bar, and I am also interested in being in a crew for crew-games. I am also slowly growing experience in Hack Game for the medal of honor award, but it will be a long road ahead.

What makes you stand out from the rest?

I am very focused and hard-working. I have integrity, and when I make promises, I will always follow through with them.

What do you consider to be the most important trait in a person?

Being respectful of people at all times is the most important trait.

John Doe - October 10, 2020, 11:57 am

When and why did you join Hack Forums?: A few days ago, because i know a few members offsite and that i can see that HF needs some help.

What are your strengths and/or skills?: Development + Security

Why do you want to join Exalted?: Seems like an interesting crew, if your standards are as high as it appears.

What makes you stand out from the rest?: Take a look at my one and only thread. Who joins the forum to contribute rather than leech.

What do you consider to be the most important trait in a person?: Loyalty. If you are told something u keep it to your death bed no snitching.

Blockonome - October 14, 2020, 9:26 am

Compulsive - October 14, 2020, 12:19 pm

When and why did you join Hack Forums?:

I joined in 2013 to download Minecraft hacks, and have stayed around for all the other sectors.

What are your strengths and/or skills?:

I would say my biggest strength would be people skills. I have worked with ASD and other mental disorders, and have had many other hands-on jobs. I would love to have a chat with you on my other skills, but this is what jumps out about me.

Why do you want to join Exalted?:

I want a community. I have not been part of a group since The Empire back in the day and feel like I am missing out on a major factor of this forum. I am not friends with anyone on HF and would love to change that.

What makes you stand out from the rest?:

To be honest? I am not sure that there is a real reason for you to pick me compared to more relevant members on HF, but I feel that I am able to welcome everyone with open arms and exemplify the atmosphere of a tight-knit group as I am not part of any other group (besides paying for a group)

What do you consider to be the most important trait in a person?:

Malleability. When I say this, I mean in mindset. If you are able to understand, process, and rationalize an idea to make a formulated opinion which could potentially differ from your original, then you are unstoppable. I am the president of a fraternity with over 80 members in it. I am constantly barraged with ideas, both good and bad. These people I could have had past falling outs with, or they are not constructive ideas. However, being able to handle those ideas, and even act on them, requires lots of intuition, foresight, and malleability. I am currently looking for someone to take over my role when my term is up, and that is what I am looking for the most out of my successor.

Thank you for opening recruitment, would love to be a part of it and good luck to everybody else applying!

Captain Cold - October 31, 2020, 12:21 am

When and why did you join Hack Forums?: I joined March of 2014. I think the first reason I had joined was because I was active in other forums already, and I knew that this was the main forum everyone went to. I originally would just lurk around the forum, make some purchases but never really attempted to be an active member. It was only till a couple months ago that I finally upgraded, and decided to start becoming more active.

What are your strengths and/or skills?: I am a graphic designer for a little over 8 years. I am also really good at e-whoring. I started doing it in 2016 and then I took a break, and just recently started doing it again with good success. I am also a funny guy to be around.

Why do you want to join Exalted?: I want to be a part of something, I want to be part of a group. I never been in any groups since being here, and would like to finally change that. I haven't really made any friends here, and I think its about time that I do. I will also try my best to be as active in the group sub-forums, if there is one.

What makes you stand out from the rest?: Well for starters, I got a twin brother so I guess being unique was never one of my traits lol. I am in the military, so that makes me stand out a little more hopefully. I usually stand out because I always try my best to make people smile, I just don't like the mood to be sad so I always attempt to not let that be the case. I think i'm a fun person to have conversations with and always try my best to add something to it.

What do you consider to be the most important trait in a person?: I think the most important trait in a person has to be loyalty. I believe if the person is loyal, then that makes it so that other traits are added to that. For example, if a person is loyal to you then you know you can trust that person and count on them.

Thanks for reading my application, sorry if the format came out bad. I posted this through my phone. Good luck to everyone who applies. Regardless if I get accepted or not, good luck with the group and I wish it the best.
