Thread: Do You Fart Out Loud or Silently?

cyote791 - September 20, 2020, 4:28 am

Hey guys,

The title says it all.

I was just thinking that this is a funny topic to discuss.

I fart out loud if I am with my wife and my immediate family members. But in public, hell no, I do it silently but sometimes, there is still a sound. :D

haha. what an excellent question. I try to make them as loud as possible.

I fart out loud if I'm with my family or by myself. I don't fart at all if I'm with my friends etc.

Bacardi Cola Lime - September 20, 2020, 2:56 pm

I don't control it, I just pray no one notices.

I always do it silently. Even if I'm alone.

When you're in a room with a couple of people and you smell it, my "Among us" senses kick in and I try to figure out who the imposter is Me too.

I know how I act when I fart silently. I try to see if someone behaves similarly. Lmao.

jecoylecroy - September 21, 2020, 5:03 pm

I want to fart loud but not smelly.

Starks - September 24, 2020, 6:52 am

Whether loud or silent, as long as you do it in an appropriate place, no big deal.

87_AU - September 27, 2020, 1:30 pm

LMAO, what a weird question for me personally it depends on who I am around and the timing however usually I like to make my farts loud! ???

lTheSlayer - February 15, 2021, 8:15 am

I always do it silently, i'm never alone.

??? all depends on people around you eh!

at least once you get to like 60 onwards you just let em rip with no care in the world.
