Thread: Reasons for BAN will be great seekjustice - September 21, 2020, 2:01 pm recently i have an account with the name "real plug" as much as i can remember, i have NEVER BROKE ANY RULES as i carefully read the rules.

i did not scam anyone nor cheat anyone. i simply can not remember any wrong doing/ i recently upgrade my account too could upgrading my account the reason i got banned ? i doubt not.

is there any scam report or cheat report against me, i could not find anything of such or related.

i will be happy if i am told the reason i got banned.

it will be fair to put a reason why A or B got banned , so others can know. to put the records straight.

i have read disputes many times members got scammed by higher members and nothing happened, this scammers and cheaters are still perfectly active in this forum, but i am surprised why i was banned for doing Nothing.

i demand to know why i got banned.

my profile: uid=4813862

some scam and cheaters still active on forum such acts is totally unfair. HF is either yours and for you alone or for everyone. because i am not admin means i do not have right to be here and enjoy my time since i broke no laws ? why ban people for fun and not for reasons ? Please Please. when you ban some people , give your reasons so you do not look like a fool. you leave the bad guys to enjoy cheating and scamming members because they are UBER yet get busy with new upgraded members that commits no crime.

as much as i know you will ban me again for making this thread. be matured enough to allow me read the reason you banned me or put it in profiles of people you banned the reason why they got banned. thats how it should be. don't ban for fun, ban for a reason.

things to know a good forum

1. you earn reputation, you earn awards, not buy it
2. you ban people for reasons and the reasons displayed for others to know their crime
3. you stand justice for all and not for few
4. EVERYONE has equal rights as long as they all respect the rules. do not treat cheaters nice and treat good people bad. it tarnish the image of HF.

Thanks.

Multiple accounts are not allowed. There you go. Picking "HF_Admin_is_IDIOT" as a username is also probably not a good idea.

That's a good enough reason right there.
