Thread: Have I been restored?

TheChaosKiller - September 22, 2020, 9:31 am

I got a message from someone to say my account was back online, so I logged in and all appears to be working. Has it been determined finally that I indeed did not scam anyone, nor did anything untoward/illegal? I am more than happy to resolve the open disputes I have, and since I've gotten access back I've been able to send out my Discord to people so that I can contact them about refunds/replacements as before today I had no way of getting in touch with most of them. I'm confused as to how this has happened, and why I haven't been emailed about this officially but would love to be able to continue where I left off if possible. Thanks.

I was supposedly banned for scamming someone despite the fact they were never scammed and I was still in contact with them and then delivered after the ban anyway. I carried on delivering, but apparently some came on here claiming they were scammed hoping to get free stuff from people. A couple I wasn't able to deliver to because I was banned and had no way of contacting them so it made it look even worse. No one from support would respond to my messages so I gave up and went back to the other forums I use, but then today someone messaged to say my account was back so I logged in and it's working. I'm really confused and have no official word.

What's your Discord?

You scammed me $200 from your OnlyFans mentoring, which I never received. :)

Welcome back.

Didn't scam, read the post. Responded to the dispute, so let's take this further and get it resolved.

I understand.

I tried to PM you but it's disabled.

PM me your Discord? I assume your original one is no longer in use.

I'd honestly say, you have not been restored.

Sakhill - September 23, 2020, 1:05 am

You should be banned forever.

You scam me for 500$ or even more, not sure.

Give me accounts which are get banned in few days after sell.

It's look that you are here for more scams.

But yeah if u will ever refund maybe we can talk, but you are involved in that much scams that I think this is impossible.

Well, you probably haven't had a chance to fix your bad deeds, buddy...

ChromeRabid - January 8, 2021, 12:07 pm

You do not deserve to be restored until you become a good person and stop stealing.
