He got me an OnlyFans account verified successfully.

He then provided me with a pack.

I received no mentoring which I paid $200 for, and no promo, essentially rendering the account and pack useless.

Only bothering to post this now as it seems he's returned after being banned.

Will happily close should he choose to cooperate. :)

Thought he'd been closed? How come all these people are unbanned now?

No idea man.

I was checking old Discord messages and found our DM's - I'd completely forgotten about him in all honesty.

Then I just typed his name in on HF, and by complete chance, he'd made a thread announcing his return just 30 minutes ago.

Nope, but thanks for the neg rep, love knowing I live in your head rent free.

I was getting ridiculous amounts of hack attacks on my Discord, not going to tag in other members in case they get abuse from spiral from it, but some reputable people here can vouch for that because it happened literally mid convo a few times so I had to make a new one. If you send me your addy, we can work something out and I will be able to provide it.

What is neg rep? We dont have anything which is called "rep" on HF.

We do. It's the popularity score, commonly referred to as 'rep'.

I only just got back on today, hence my other post and his mention in his post. I am actively trying to resolve all open issues now I have finally got access back to my account. They will get what they paid for, goodbye.

I recommend you to read Help Docs. Popularity isnt rep and those who referring it as rep need to read Help Docs again and again.

No thanks, been here long enough to know that it really doesn't matter, and just posting something like you're an OG user of HF when you're clearly not just makes you look like a fool. If you've not got anything productive to add to this thread, there's the Lounge for you.

Lmao that really hit a nerve if the very next thing you do is neg rep me.

When reputation was removed, Popularity was added in since users still wanted a way to rate members. If he refers to a negative popularity rating as a neg rep, it's probably because he hasn't been on the site in a while. No need to be pedantic.

Please keep the dispute thread on topic for the benefit of both parties.

Nonetheless, this guy has a lot of open disputes. If he just came back and already has an open dispute then this looks particularly bad. Hopefully it gets resolved but otherwise, sorry for your loss OP.

I spoke to you about this when you got closed, I supported you, I assisted in getting your contact info to them and assured you were still going through with your active deals, despite the ban.

And you left me like this, literally wasted $450 with you..

Are you still using Discord?

As I said before, my Discord was being bombarded with hack attacks and then people trying to capitalise on the moment and impersonate me to make a quick buck. One of the more known members on here tried it on too and revealed himself, but I'm saving that tidbit for another day.

I've sent you my new Discord so we can sort this out.

Sounds good.

I will happily support your case if you do truly wish to make amends.

Dude opened it seconds after seeing I was back online, and we're now in the process of arranging contact so we can sort this out. I'm going through each dispute and trying to get them rectified as I had no way of addressing any issues whatsoever when I was banned and people took advantage.

Not amends, I did nothing wrong, just trying to deliver what I was originally trying to deliver.

Well hopefully you do sort all of these disputes out. I'd give you the benefit of the doubt, since you just got back and I assume you weren't unbanned for no reason.

That should settle things. I don't think OP was wrong to open the dispute and warn other people. Until either you or OP have an update there's so point in people throwing abuse at each other in the dispute thread. Hope it gets sorted out!

No by all means, not saying he was wrong, but saying it's a false equivalency to say that this immediate dispute is a confirmation of any kind of behaviour because he only opened it after seeing I was back, but regardless we're going to get it sorted.

That makes no sense lmao.

Anyone who purchases anything from him while he has active disputes is simply retarded.

He's making amends with myself and likely others too - he shouldn't be selling anything until they're all cleared.

Please clarify his 'fair point'.

I haven't sent TheChaosKiller any money since April, before any of the disputes started.

I pretty much further'd Pyro's point by saying anyone who deals with him while these are ongoing, is simply retarded.

I don't care about a refund lmao, he has agreed to fulfil his end of the deal, if he doesn't - the dispute(s) will stay open.

Simple, really.

Either way, I meant no offence to Pyro.

Apologies if it came across that way.

I will keep you updated with what happens.

no im just saying that scammers prolong disputes to get off more scams before they finally get banned. keeping a dispute open against him won't stop him as he's been banned before and most likely doesn't care about this account at all.

As I have stated in my previous posts, anyone dealing with someone that has active disputes like these, is simply retarded.
