Sick bike man, thats awesome. I don't ride but always wanted to get one. Someday.. hopefully I can do the same.

Guessing you had other bikes prior to this? What else have you owned?

Nice bike but I'm more of a car man.

Give me an M3 and I will be happy all day.

Congrats to your achievements bro. It is a small step to more success. May I know what bike did you bought and how much does it cost? A picture of your bike would be awesome.
