It would be an honor to be apart of this group. It's lovely to see that you do not accept buy-in's of any form. That is very generous and something many applicants should appreciate when applying. A lot of money and resources go into creating a group.

As far a me becoming part of the group; I believe (if you care to look at many of my posts), that when I am on HF I typically strive to be as professional, mature, and laid back as possible within much of my content. You might also find that I am a white-hat and actively involved in trying to help new members. Many of my posts in regards to advice and feedback should showcase this.

There's many things I would love to delve into in regards to my skillsets and stuff, but I do not want to come across as if I am gloating or anything along those lines because that's simply not the case. I do like to think of myself as an overachiever and I am the type of person to get their Doctorates degree simply just to have the title. Not because I want to show off, but because I wish to push myself to the limit in every aspect of my life, most especially when it comes to person finances and career growth.

I would make a longer post to serve as my application and perhaps I still may via PM, but I do not want to do so via reply only to just have my application with much of my background and skills simply looked over. :/

Anyhow, thank you very much for posting this thread and giving other members the opportunity to apply to this fantastic group without requiring them to shell out their hard earned money. I know owning a group isn't cheap!

This group sounds and looks beautiful. I'd love to eventually join once I'm more stable and more active. I just recently moved states and got a new job working 6 days a week, haven't been able to set up my PC yet. <3

I would love to be a part of dreamers. I've got a lot more active the last couple of months and I definitely would keep the subforums active. I am also always on discord so I would love to make some new friends. Thanks for the opportunity man :)

Still looking for more members.

We are looking for likeminded individuals, ones who want to make a difference on site, and overall decent people.

If you want to apply, either reply to the thread or PM me or Zero directly.

Welcome to Dreamers

About:

We are Dreamers. Group of special individuals.

Every group member was chosen for a reason. Either you're a helpful member of the HF community or do/achieved something special.

We're not looking for any sort of drama nor care. This group will never accept buyins.

How do you join?

- Comment on the thread and let us know that you want to join. We'll then review your account and activity and consider.

As much as I'm thinking I probably won't be accepted I'm still going to say that I would like to join and would to throw my name in the hat.

Lyralei - November 20, 2020, 1:33 am

I'm not the most social personally really, so I barely know anyone even for a couple of years, but I am interested in joining this lovely group, as for what I can contribute? I guess my thoughts and more as time will tell.

Thanks for the consideration.

Groceph_Dirt - November 21, 2020, 2:07 am

Ive been a man without a nation for far to long, I am recently active again after a long break. Work really got in the way of my on site time management so I left for a while, I want to try and rejoin the community and be a helpful source of insight to members. I have alot more free time since the pandemic and leaving my old job that i think this would help fill. Im not sure of what it is you guys do, but I enjoy your mission statement.

Thank you in advance for reviewing my account, hope to hear from you soon.

False King - November 21, 2020, 10:04 am

Seen some of the Dreamers members around on the forums, and it seems like a cool group, so I'd be fairly interested in joining.

Lavish Living - November 22, 2020, 12:21 pm

Very cool to see how much this group has grown since its inception a few months ago.

Recruitment is still open boys.

Stanley - November 27, 2020, 7:23 am

I'm Stanley HF's helper bot. This OP (original poster) of this thread wants everyone to see this page and has elected to bump it to the top of the showthread listing. Since HF doesn't want a ton of LQP (Low Quality Posts) this is the best method of bumping your content. There is a small ?yte fee for each bump. Any OP can bump any of their threads on HF from the linked icon on the top of their first post.

If you haven't already read the first post of this thread we encourage you to do so.

Thanks,
Stanley
