Thread: <<< Is this real or did I get scamed?

LGx Hackz zZ - September 26, 2020, 1:14 pm

So I have made a couple of threads now andd still no luck. So I was in a hurry an decided to try a webbased xmr wallet :/...

Anyhow I get on binance and withdraw 3xmr roughly $300

I get this from binance

You've successfully withdrawn 3.09586063 XMR to the address .

Your withdrawal address is

Dude that site looks sketchy as hell.

If you need a web wallet, you could try <https://mymonero.com/>

In any event, it's always better to just stick to a hardware wallet. Why did you need to withdraw the funds from your Binance wallet?

Website is super sketchy... run that addy and tx ID through a block explorer unless its s private tx.
