Thread: Does anyone remember the user who would reply with videos.

Mr. Robot - September 26, 2020, 10:55 pm

I'm trying to find if he's still active, he would reply to threads with video replies instead of written replies.

circa 2016.

Thanks to Deany we found him.

Code My Bio Box

I don't reply with comments, I reply with videos.

I'll say whatever you want on video -- with a straight face:

Example video he made

Only some of the videos are public but there were quite a lot

Not really, I do remember someone who would always reply with a screenshot of his reply.

He would write his reply in notepad screenshot the segment and post it. I thought it was unique.

I wrote some software to record animated meme gifs with overlays ages ago I used to reply to loads of posts with that for like a month then got bored :')

Here's some old ones i found laying about on my PC

Omni Virus also came from this software ?

Omni Jokes Gif

Mr. Robot - Lmao yes I do remember that guy, people used to talk the most shit to him back then lol. His videos would've probably been more accepted today compared to four years ago on HF.

Oh and uh, the member he shouts out at the beginning of this video really didn't age well LOL:
