Thread: what's your opinion on anime?

telly - September 28, 2020, 10:13 am people around me are usually indulged in it or they stay away from it. personally I do watch it but I can't binge more than 3 episodes without feeling unproductive.

Doom - September 28, 2020, 10:23 am

I love anime, I watch dubbed rather than subbed though because I usually have it on the side while I'm doing something else.

MarvinMalware - September 28, 2020, 10:27 am

I'm a pretty big fan, it's definitely not all I watch but I do watch a few episodes of some anime a day usually.

Kody - September 28, 2020, 10:31 am

I have mixed thoughts. The hype around anime must mean it's incredible. I've tried a few but didn't really get into it enough to continue watching. I've watched the first season of Full Metal Alchemist Brotherhood but eventually lost internet.

Can anybody give some recommendations? I want to watch one where the main character is an absolute UNIT

Watch Death Note if you want a solid anime full of suspense.

Darling in the Franxx if you want something dreamy/romantic.

My personal favorite is Mob Psycho, though.

Free Kurdistan - September 28, 2020, 10:40 am

Tried it once and I literally felt like a 10 year old, but the stories are indeed interesting. Not for me though.

Death Note is pretty good, never got to see many others, i think also saw the Alchemist one, can't really remember the name.

OP, watch if you like for as long as you remain productive, don't mind other people's opinions.

10tick - September 28, 2020, 10:48 am i really love the genre, my favourite being hxx the only form of media to ever almost make me cry.

the problem is i have too much shit going on and no motivation to watch, no matter how long the show i am going to watch it in a few days otherwise i will never return and lose interest.

yeah I don't really mind other people's opinions but I just wanted some good animes to watch, I heard Death Note is good. I'm watching Attack on Titan right now lol hxx is top tier. Also I'm the exact same, if I don't finish something it will most likely never be finished.

Artisan - September 28, 2020, 11:33 am

I love anime. Pretty old for it actually but it helps keep the inner child alive and helps to stabilize my mood (unless important characters die).

Joel - September 28, 2020, 12:18 pm

Really don't enjoy it, don't hate on people who watch it though. Anything long term isn't really for me.

Malthemar - September 28, 2020, 12:26 pm

I love it, but it seems increasingly difficult to find good ones nowadays.

Prom King - September 28, 2020, 12:38 pm

I could never get into them mainly because back in the day it was pretty tough to find dubbed copies and I'm not a big fan of subtitles.

Most of my friends love them though and couple weeks ago my son wanted CruncyRoll subscription for Naruto lol. Guess I'm the odd ball

N1ghtm4re - September 28, 2020, 4:09 pm

Slept on, anime is no different from cartoons, it's just better. People can sit and binge watch 25 1 hour long episodes of a series but will shun people for watching 20 25 minute long episodes of an anime.

Love me some Good anime, Bad anime is distasteful and I steer away from it of course.

Deany - September 28, 2020, 4:10 pm

I mainly watch hentai ask me anything Kappa

Disease - September 28, 2020, 4:41 pm

There's only been a handful of shows where I stayed engaged and kept up with it. I'm sure I'd appreciate it more if I gave it enough of a chance. The real problem for me, though, is that I really only watch TV when I am settling down to go to sleep. So something I can doze off to, and listen to, just as much as watch, is important. Anime just isn't that... particularly as much of what you watch is subbed, rather than dubbed (and going the dubbed route is often just too cringe).

Geass - September 28, 2020, 4:57 pm

I wonder why people enjoy so much anime, it's weird :O

jecoylecroy - September 28, 2020, 5:08 pm

I like to watch anime but I hate watching series. I take a lot of time.

fernquaker - September 28, 2020, 5:33 pm

My opinion about anime is that, they are good to watch, you will be amazed by the super powers that most characters have. I personally watch an anime called One Piece.

You should continue watching! It is getting better and better. I am now in the Land of Wano arc. I am tuning in for the latest episode every week.

Haha! Watching 1 episode per week is really painful bro. I envy you because you still have 200 unwatched episodes. For me, I don't like re-watching those episodes. :D

My first look about your message is, "I'm addicted to korean..." I thought movies or series. :D - My bad. Can you give me some recommendations of korean or chinese animes? I'm not into mangas, I want to see the characters moving.

I will write it down and put it in my anime watch list. Can you spoil me a little bit regarding what this anime is all about? I want to know some facts about it before watching.

Magic elements (fire, water etc) and isekai :)

Also if you enjoy anime with OP MC it's perfect.

over powered main character :)

? Soufian ? - September 28, 2020, 7:46 pm

In my opinion it's childish. I wouldn't wanna be seen near it.

Grey Hat Mafia - September 29, 2020, 12:32 am

I watch it, actually watching Overlord Season 3 (Uncut) right now. people always say what they want lol.

I binge everything from Anime to Movies. I've been working on Blacklist.

Anyway to me it's just another form of entertainment, nothing to be criticized or praised.

Jinu - September 29, 2020, 1:13 am

These days, the trend of Anime is increasing. People are crowding over the episodes, games, and art that related to Anime. In my opinion, If someone starts watching it, they will start loving it. I started watching it and loving it.

Bossk - September 29, 2020, 1:16 am

Never had an interest in it.

And you won't miss anything.

I used to watch a lot. But now I realize I would've been in a better place today had I spend that time more productively.

oRequiem - September 29, 2020, 2:36 am

I don't watch much of anime, but loved every second of the anime's I've watched.

Geralt - September 29, 2020, 3:18 am

It's a decent form of entertainment. I watch a couple of episodes every week, but I only watch those rated 17+, can't really stand pg13 stuff like Hunter x Hunter.

SourceCode101 - September 29, 2020, 3:20 am i like hentai only / to boring for anime

junkie - September 29, 2020, 3:34 am

I do not watch anime thanks for asking. Maybe after my death I'm going to watch a sequence of an episode :P

Yanix - September 29, 2020, 5:04 am

I love anime but some didn't fill my interests...I usually go for some funny and more actions anime :D

Used to think it was kinda weird and never understood why people watched it. Now i realise it just really depends on the anime you watch, because i found a good one and while i dont binge it everyday and i cant really watch more then 3 episodes of it at once, i do still enjoy it.

Klonopin - September 29, 2020, 2:57 pm not a fan of cartoons, not even as a kid i liked cartoons much.

but im not one of those people who hate someone for liking anime.

Charybdis - September 30, 2020, 10:49 am

I've never been into anime, however a lot of people I know love it. I just don't watch much shows or TV to begin with. I'm more of a sports person

Kin9uin - September 30, 2020, 2:32 pm

There are really good anime series & movies, but man, they make endless episodes for almost every series. (well, except for Death Note & a few others)

Hero0o0 - September 30, 2020, 2:58 pm

Good shit. I miss Naruto Uzumaki and Kakashi.

Zencypher - October 1, 2020, 6:14 pm

I love anime, but my favorite genre is mecha related, like gundam, macross, code geass, full metal panic, etc.
