I am personally looking for this type of website all over the internet. Does this website generates a URL and when you promote your URL and someone clicks on it, you get paid?

Hey. Do you have experience using this website?

Or just the first time you've seen this website?

First time seeing this website, but I've used several others that were very similar.

IDK - September 30, 2020, 12:21 am

What's the minimum payout ?

It doesn't seem to be anything less than 15 from what OP shared, but I suppose some further research would suffice as well.

Have you had any success about some of these shortened URL websites? Because I personally trying to drive pop traffic to these URLs but their filters are so good, that's why I don't earn that much.

I'm talking about some websites like:

shrinkme.io

shorte .st

ouo.io

And many more!

Thoughts?

pipito - September 30, 2020, 11:33 am

Does this website pay you to shorten your urls or to promote your links? It has not been entirely clear to me. And if you don't mind me asking, how long did it take you to get to that first payment?

This type of website pay you because they contain ads. More traffic = more views on ads = more $$
So you promote their your links then evey x clics on your shortened url you'll get some dollars.

This website allows you to shortened your URLs and you will get paid if you promote that URL. I'm actually still experimenting about this URL shorteners that pays, I hope I will find some golden nuggets of info soon.

Ok, hopefully you can comment on your experience later. I would like to know how you managed, if you can make a good income. :)

I sent 100,000 visits to a URL that I created and I didn't get any earnings. It is total zero. I just want to ask the OP what OP chooses in the ad type? <http://prntscr.com/urmwij>

What a bad partner, seen as it is, it seems that this is not worth much. Anyway, I don't have time to go around promoting links, there are better ways to earn money.

Based on personal experience of using this website, it is not worth it for me. I did not earn at least a cent at all. It is a total waste of my time, but I will not give up trying to look for this type of website until I find gold.

This website is shit. It isn't working for me because I already sent 100,000 visits to the URL I generated and I earn a huge amount of zero dollars. LOL. Don't waste your time on this website.

I'm registered on the website. Like I said, I sent 100,000 visits to the URL I generated using the website. Here's my stats after sending traffic: <http://prntscr.com/ut7ong> - It's a total zero earnings. When I create a URL, what do I need to choose? <http://prntscr.com/ut7p3e> - Interstitial Ad? Banner?

Or "No Ad"?

I will try to contact them and try it again. I hope it will be fixed soon because I spend a good amount of money to send 100,000 visits without any results. If you can help me, that would be great.

If you're buying bot traffic you're just gonna get banned. For as many blank pages as they have their ToS page isn't.
