Thread: MM Zexi UID 2394729 IS A SCAMMER AND IS SCAMMING HIS CUSTOMERS

Tomek Radomski - September 30, 2020, 7:22 am

I don't know how to dispute the MM so I decided to open this community alert against him to make everyone stay away from using his MM services.

Here is a proof that I've been scammed by him

<https://hackforums.net/showthread.php?tid=6111823>

Please stay away from using his MM service as you are not safe while using him.

Use MM Kill Joy - your deal will be fair there, Zexi is not doing his work properly and should not be allowed to use his MM position !

Charybdis - September 30, 2020, 7:31 am

Dude you are so annoying. You have 5 open disputes for selling a shitty method. Nobody feels sorry for you.

I'm not asking people to feel sorry about them. I want to warn about a scammer Middleman who is not doing his job properly

Angela White - September 30, 2020, 7:33 am

Zexi did his job perfectly fine. He held the funds, the buyer wasn't satisfied with the product, then you gained 5 deal disputes so he didn't give you the funds.

Please log off of HF and never return.

You lost all your reputation and every user on here just flames you now. We don't like you.

Also your "proof" that you were scammed by Zexi was a deal dispute with another user? That's not a valid deal dispute, your account will be closed for accusing of scamming without a contract.

There is nobody else to blame but yourself.

MrJamesDean - September 30, 2020, 7:33 am

Are you actually crazy? You've opened so many disputes and alerts now, and it's being pretty much proven that you're in the wrong. You have so many open disputes against yourself, and your reasonings for them don't make sense. You're just making things worse for yourself by doing this! Sort out the disputes amicably with people bro, get these stains removed from your profile, and move on.

Tomek Radomski - September 30, 2020, 7:34 am

Therefore since I'm being scammed in an official deals where MM are involved, and other people also tried scamming me, I will now choose to scam all my customers. I'm really happy for the money I made and I'm really happy I made those idiots loose money.

But there is new scammers we should add to the lovely scamming family of Hackforums and it is ZEXIIIIII

You already scammed 5 out of your 14 customers and 5 of your 9 customers that you didn't scam look fake.

Just those 5 people were unlucky to be playing at the loosing streak which is none of my fault. Also I barely made any money as I sold my lovely method so cheap. Now with Zexi and xxx scamming me, me and my customers are even

So 5 people in a row were unlucky and it has nothing to do with your method that you admitted to me broke last night and wasn't autopilot?

How come no one else on here has ebooks that get 5 scam reports in a row? Why doesn't anyone else get that unlucky?

It's autopilot. Whatever, people scammed me, now its my turn to scam people

I think saying "I will now choose to scam all my customers" as if that is any kinda normal or justified response will be the straw that's gonna break your camel's back. No coming back from statements like that when it's already suspected you're scamming.

If you were actually making a ton of money off your gambling methods, then paying out $2,000 to repair your business and to continue selling here to make even more money would actually be a really smart thing to do.

you won't need to refund them, if you're in the right and they're in the wrong. However, you know that you're the scammer...
