Well! It's time to expose this scammer.

So, I contacted this guy and I agreed to his deal without single penny negotiation for his 1st slot of $199

He wants me to use this auto-buy contract template so that he can scam me:

Proof of payment:

<https://sellix.io/track/68bd06-989055d35b-2f3ff3>

As soon I paid the payment, He canceled the contract (First sign of scamming) He successfully executed his plan to scam me.

Proof

He blocked me from discord & Scam confirmed (Proved that he scammed me)

He refused to give me my money back and started doing blackmailing to take the method or not. (Take method or not) Because I made a new contract and raised a dispute. So he has to do something to cover his face

Since, he failed in his contract cancel game. So he decided to give a method with a disclaimer so that he can scam me in proper way this time "Your judgment might be poor, or you can classify it as stolen or whatever. So I don't take responsibility if you find the method "non working" or "unable" to execute. It's your responsibility to take action with the method."

Look at the screenshot below where I've confirmed everything before buying, that according to his method I must get 1000 matches on [BRAND NAME REMOVED] but his method is nothing just a simple trick to make multiple accounts which is already public a newbie ewhorer knew that as well.

Nothing else I can expect from him because I know I scammed me and he just wants to cover his face behind this false advertisement 1000 matches guide "Not even 50 matches"

I want my money back! Poor scammer

This was an exit scam, pretty clear. Sorry man :/

do?pey - October 3, 2020, 3:43 pm

I just want to clarify that Honey hasn't been scammed nor is this an exit scam from my side.

I will provide Honey with the guide that he purchased. Sadly, he hasn't provided the parts where he threatens me or starts calling on Discord 2 minutes right after he paid through the Autobuy. So all your posts can literally go to hell.

I didn't expect anything more or less from this community.

He urged me to send him the guide, and he showed a lack of patience and immature behavior, therefore I proceeded on wasting his time and also playing with the same card. Annoyance.

I clarified on my contract terms that I will edit the guide on the customers name, and when I hadn't received the money on my end (because sellix was still processing it) he started using his reputation as an excuse as a reason that I shouldn't follow my guidelines of safety when dealing online.

What Honey doesn't understand is that not everyone cares about some B ratings and an influence on an online public forum.

I will post here when I have delivered the guide to Honey. (Alongside with a pizza picture that I purchased with his money zz :p)

Update:

I have provided Honey with the guide.

I don't know if he will be able to post since he has Limited Access.

Evidence that I have provided him with the guide.

He also refused to send me the Email through HF PM or Convo.

From Honey behavior I am assuming that he might consider my method not working, even though I have wrote a 4 page guide where I explain even the smallest detail on how to execute it.

He refuses to resolve the deal dispute. Therefore I am no longer going to offer any support towards him.

This deal dispute to me is resolved as I have provided him with the product that he purchased. Because of his impatience and immature behavior which resulted in a deal dispute and hf drama, he now prefers to keep the dispute up as a revenge against me.

Also @LoremIpsum@ fuck you.

More of his accusations.

I am not going to remove the proof above as I think it would look sketchy on my end. But if any Admin or Moderator would like to protect his info, please go ahead and remove that particular image including this.

Since when did your balls grew so quick and you started to interfere? Your entire B Rating is based on Bytes exchanges. You're most likely the one to exit scam.

Deal - October 4, 2020, 6:39 am

I dealt with Honey Singh one time in an exchange deal for like $800. My BTC for his PP.

First time he sent only half the money. Then he wanted to wait 4 hours and send the other half from another account. What a complete idiot. He did not state that anywhere in the contract terms, and refused to send the rest before the four hours passed.

This shows me several things:

1. He is shady and uses stealth PayPal's.
2. He is a bad business man.

I don't know simpcity. I just find it funny that Honey cries about not getting his product instantly, given the unfortunate way he conducts business himself.

why don't you ask for a refund while he's processing your guide, asking for a refund after he gives you the guide is straight up weird.

taking the guide and then asking for a refund is weird because you could've just denied giving your gmail and then ask for a refund. the fact that you gave him your gmail and complied makes it seem like you now need the guide for free.

Let me clear you,

Firstly he tried to scam by canceling the contract and blocked me.

How can I trust a person like this?

When I made another contract and raised a dispute he comes up with offering a method with his big terms and conditions. So that he can hide his scamming face behind that.

I asked him clearly that how many matches will I get he says 1k per day.

But his method is nothing, Just to make multiple [BRAND NAME REMOVED] lol how does it will help me to get 1k matches.

WHAT A FAIL.

Don't try to change the subject dude,

I never said I will not make a single account, his method is to make multiple accounts and that's not for what i paid.

I asked him before buying and he says 1000 matches.

I'm not even getting 100 matches with this method.

It's a lie and I got scammed.

I hope taking this matter to off topic will help OP,

I've not paid him blindly for his method, I do enquired before buying his method.

He says : " I will get 1000 matches and multiple accounts are optional "

His methods : Says only to make multiple accounts to get matches! It's a complete fake off about 1000 matches

Because I can't even get 50 matches from one accounts and making making multiple [BRAND NAME REMOVED] accounts it's already a public shit.

I don't find a reason for $200 here, I hate liar and people who do frudad.

My friend, there is nothing special. Just a normal account.

A normal account gets 20-40 matches and a maximum of 50.

unless you boost them with money.

That's exactly the whole point. Why would to pay someone for a normal account!

I brought this because he says "1000 matches and multiple accounts are optional"

I though even If I get 200-300 that would be fine, but it's not even getting 10% of what he says.

That's why I prefer to ask before buying anything, He lied to me and ended up with a scam.

In his method, It is written that I need to make multiple accounts.

My point is very much clear that one account can get the only a maximum of 20-40 matches. = MAXIMUM 50 (very very rare)

What he said 1000 matches, is a complete liar so that he can sell his method to me.

The only reason why I brought this method= 1000 matches, I know how normal [BRAND NAME REMOVED] accounts works and how to make multiple with chrome/emulator/proxies and etc.

It's a pure scam for $200, Go to section ewhore you'll get free method there how to make tinders lol and get 20-50 matches
