Is gambling causes so much damage or it is a source of entertainment?

Gambling can be an escape stress for people who've experienced illness or divorce, or who want to forget about life's.

Gambling is for anybody. It's a very old way of wasting time and money.. Not just for the "illness and divorce" people.

It's entertaining, adrenaline rushing (addictive) and of course paying off well or wasting a lot of money.

Same as drinking and anything else that is "bad", do it with caution and common sense.

Lol and I would like to add, it's not a good idea to mix too much drinking with gambling. I blew through 1k in 12 hours. I was on a roll sipping a couple of beers but there is a fine line between a couple of beers and one too many.

Yes, I agree with you, gambling is a waste of money and time, from gambling people will receive physical and psychological stress.

And many other threads I have. If you have a problem with gambling, just stay away from it.

But making false claims or misunderstanding my point of view on gambling isn't really making anything or anybody better.

I think online betting games are not gambling because you earn from there
