Well, this year seems like every other yeah for NA fans. Lay down and take a beating.

LGD really suprised me, they were kinda shit in playins, but they almost went 3-0 in first half of group stage.

Thoughts?

I was surprised to see a reverse sweep with FNC. I think that was the first time it's happened at worlds to my knowledge.

Yeah, it was the first reverse sweep in the world tournament. And now I'm waiting for the finals, it would be interesting to watch. :)
