Why? helping to pay for the rest of college, did the ROTC program they said they would pay for everything if I committed myself to 3 years in the navy. Month or so later I get a call from college saying they only paid for a quarter of it -.-, so money would be really helpful.

internap dos - August 14, 2010, 10:33 pm

Amount needed $10

Why? I was recently scammed by an imposter out of $11, I tried charging back it my case was closed. Now I am needing funds to top up my Paypal balance again(I currently only have $1.50 in it). I also want to purchase a UB3R upgrade(got accepted but can't afford it) so i have been trying to sell stuff here on HF for the past few days, therefore the $10 will really help. I have also been contributing quite a lot lately.

Thank you, can you PM me if I get 'accepted'

Rappercake - August 14, 2010, 10:36 pm

Amount needed: $5

Why?: I have $10 already, and just need 5 for 1337. I really want to get 1337 so I can +rep that guy who gave me a Brazzers account. :P

Ba??ly Hidd?? - August 14, 2010, 10:41 pm

Amount needed $10

Why? I was recently selling autodesk keys to buy people L33T on Hackforums, and to give back to people I've lent to before, long story short, the person I sold to asked for a refund after I spent his money, now I am negative in PayPal, and I'm only 14. :(My mom will be really disappointed in me. I'm a fairly active member of HF, I post quality tutorials, I've posted 3 tutorials where over 100 people have said they were helpful. I've made signature for free for over 100 people, all for free, even normal members too. I contribute as much as I can towards the community and I think I deserve the $10.00, just today, I stood up against someone for a lot of normal and L33T members. I defend my friends and I help a lot of people on here. I've given numerous things back to the community and plan on giving more if I have some money. I've helped and bought people L33T before and I won both L33T and UB3R, which is basically saying a lot right there. Lots of people like me, and all I want to do in the end is give back. I'm currently in the process of saving up to buy something from another UB3R member, but I can't do that while I'm negative. :/ I'd be really grateful if I got the money and I would try to re-pay it in the long run. I've done numerous services for other HF members as well, such as doing surveys for Brian, or helping DCrac23 fix his signature. They can vouch for me. I help people when they need help, and I am nice to all members, unless they're acting like jerks. Not to mention I was scammed 3 times in the long run, even though 1 person gave the money back. I've given back to normal members as well too. I'm also in the process of making two or three more tutorials and an e-book. I'd love to make them free if I could. :D I have always tried to make new members feel welcome and make people laugh, and I also recently started to voice my opinions in the Feedback section. :) I've given away a lot of free things such as Medal of Honor Codes and really useful Coupons and I look out for other members as you can see from my rep. :) That's why I think I deserve L33T, thanks for your time. You can see that I help a lot of people by looking at my rep. :D I've helped a lot of HF members earn money for their own personal use, like Bryan and clicking over 1,000 adf.ly links for other members. Not to mention I have a huge fanbase on YouTube, I constantly buy equipment to make better videos for them to enjoy, at the current time,

I have close to 3,000 subscribers total on all of my channels. :D I've never put my trust out to a forum since about 3 years ago, I joined a halo forum and had over 6,000 post with them, eventually they ended up shunning me. I don't want the same thing to happen with HF. I'd also like to pay back a couple of members on here for all the help that they've given me once I go positive on Paypal. I'd just like to say how nice it is of you to take money out of your pocket so that you can give it to others, I appreciate that regardless of whether I receive the money or not. We should have more members like you. :D

This was a picture I took a long time ago, you can check my current reputation to see all the other people I've helped. :D
