1st off all.. I wanna seriously know how is this even legal?

there's underage stars even from DISNEY CHANNEL that are shaking ass acting sexual and not wearing brahs? tf lmao

On sites like instagram or tik tok?

Like its so normal..

With all this pedophilia talk making men look bad. Which there are men that are bad. But i think i have a new way of thinking. .I think the MOTHERS of these young girls on tik tok dressing and acting a certain way should be arrested/investigate even arrested for pedophilia.. Think about it.. Why is mother/daughter pedophilia literally ignored not even in your head i bet? always involves a male it seems?

When it comes to people running these companies and businesses profiting off the sexualization of children they need to be put in check and more laws made for these situations.

On parents they should have more restrictions on social media and such. be a fucking parent and stop letting your 13 year old act like a slut because all the other women online get away with it. rs there is 13 year olds twerking to sexual songs on ticktok. Where are the parents?

Feminist don't give a damn about kids in general too worried about "man spreading" to give a damn.

feminism is a big joke.

They contradict each other all the time ...

She supports their daughters when they dress like prostitutes when they are only 12 years old

And then you see them dancing half-naked on the internet

Or even worse .. porn movie sites
