YouTube at first. Spend $40 to boost video and was making $15 a day. Used that money to experiment with ads. Now I spend about $50 in Google Ads to get $200!!

LoremIpsum - October 11, 2020, 4:51 pm

I've not tried any others but CPABuild has a great interface and nice offer forms and customization options for lockers so I love them!

You are lost in the sauce bud, there is world for AdultCPA. Now the difference in CPA networks is another thing.

Never said that adult CPA isn't profitable, I just think that comparing between CrakRev and CPABuild is impossible, they're completely different haha

Since I trust you almost with all methods.. could you tell me (PM or Discord) the main differences between CrackRev and the platform that OP and you were using?

OGAds does not allow adult cpa, most big guys use OGAds and you must get verified by admin's of proof of earnings etc and your business in order to be able to join. I know mods & admins on the site they pretty chill.

I know OGAds, it's great for mobile optimised ads (CPA).

You were talking about a different platform with OP right? The "CPABuild". That's what I'd like to know more about.

S2K - July 4, 2021, 11:50 am

What is the content of the website, I mean are you selling adult stuff and/or advertising such things? Or just a normal site with adult advertisements on it

Yes OP is using CPABuild pretty good for adult CPA as well.

I think you misunderstand my first post.

I read CPABuild is used by OP, I thought you vouched for them too. Which made me wonder what the difference is mainly when comparing CR with CB?

Because I don't know what to see when looking for adult CPA, except CR % and all that.
