The deal was that I send $170 PP and he would send me $144 in BTC.

I did my part and sent $170 to him the 25th September. After a lot of stalling and lame excuses like him being at work and do not have time (he played LoL) I still do not have my money!

Do not trust this scammer!

You need to post some more proof of the payment and your conversation with him to make your case strong.
