Run a successful (legal) business?
can be anything

ScorpionX - October 14, 2020, 7:16 am

I would like a lifestyle where I get to travel the world unrestricted by money. I want to meet new people and new cultures.

Being a millionaire living somewhere like the Maldives just chilling and drinking pina colada's on the beach everyday.

MarvinMalware - October 14, 2020, 9:42 am

To be financially free, have no stress, and to be as happy as I can be. I just wanna have a decent house somewhere with a large stable income and not have to worry about shit ever again. I'll achieve this someday.
