tldr : he requested 3 illustration, there's 2 days delivery delay because of flood here . i gave him full refund on 2nd and 3rd illustration since i already finished the first but he still threatened me to post and talk bad about me in forums . i offered to finish the job but he refused so i gave refunds.

im posting this so you guys can avoid this person at all cost .

user requested 3 illustration from me , i said for 2-4 days for first illustration and 72 hours for 3rd , so 7 days in total .

it was delayed for 2 days because we're flooded in here that cause electricity outage , i told him the problem but still he insisted that i should work on it even if there's power outage ? , i have no idea how to do that . obviously he has some problem with his attitude .

proof :

<https://cebudailynews.inquirer.net/345544/in-photos-floods-hit-parts-of-metro-cebu-after-heavy-down-pour> im already done with the 2nd illustration and just few fixes needed yet he still insist that he wants the full refund of the 2nd and 3rd illustration.

and yes , i did sent him full refund on the 2nd and 3rd and yet he's still mad at me for some reason that he's threatening me to post it in all forums .

proof that i sent him the first illustration

Spoiler \(Click to View\)

proof that im almost finished with the 2nd illustration

Spoiler \(Click to View\)

proof that he threatened mo to post all over the forum

Spoiler \(Click to View\)

proof that i refunded him

take note , i even gave him discount .
yet he doesn't understand my situation about the delay because of power outage and flood .

edit :

also i just found out when i viewed his site recently that he also used the artwork i made which he want a full refund .

so he's actually scamming me .

he doesn't have the rights to use the image cause i refunded him already.

he just earned a neg from me. anyone who isn't considerate of contractors / freelancers time is an asshole, especially since i know the quality of your work and have seen your ethic and previous works around the forum for some time here. you had a natural disaster and he still demanded a refund even on work you completed.

funny how his illustrations look like they're money related but he's too poor to even have them finished.

i have no problem giving the refund , i can forget about it .

but he threatened me to post all over the forum even after i sent him the money.

so i posted first explaining the situation ?

That is so fucking shoddy, a legitimate gfx supplier who provided proof and documentation of an actual natural disaster and he's a child about it. A literal one day delay and he's a Karen.

He reminds me of the type of person who orders food, eats the majority then requests a refund. Absolute shit tier user. And the fucking snobby attitude he carries at the end "we're not close to being done", absolutely pathetic.

Honestly you shouldn't have refunded him, let him open the dispute and I'm sure the community would've sided with you, I would at least

Sakhill - October 19, 2020, 3:58 am

He got negative from me as well, is shame that his child brain can't understand few things.

Hopefully situation in your country is better and everyone is safe.

Fair played to you at the end, hate to deal with scumbags as he is.

Smexy - October 19, 2020, 4:06 am

It's horrible people act like shit to any online artist..

Effexion - October 19, 2020, 4:15 am

What an utter asshole. You shouldn't have sent him a penny.

Zexi - October 19, 2020, 4:22 am

I am sorry you had to encounter such a terrible person.

Money Man - October 19, 2020, 7:36 am

Oh yeah def getting a neg from me too. What a fucking shit head, sorry you had to deal with that OP. Your illustrations are actually mad dope.

Scoppa - October 19, 2020, 9:50 am

Damn I'm sorry to ear that..

Thanks you for this alert on this shady user.

I would neg rep him if I could

Skateboard - October 19, 2020, 9:57 am

Thanks for the heads up Motusora! I will keep this in mind in future deals!

Artisan - October 19, 2020, 10:13 am

I'm amazed you delivered quality work even with him rushing you. People need to understand that any form of art should not and cannot be rushed.

he also told me that he's not a scammer cause he bought 6 images from me before

even threatened me to open a dispute against me

also he's a funny guy .

Sakhill - October 19, 2020, 11:21 am

What a scumbag, it's make sense why his account is limited.

Well if you somehow can protect your art and then report it as stolen and he have to delete it, but I think so that is to much hassle.

Eagle 95 - October 19, 2020, 11:28 am

Let me get this straight. You're complaining about some deal gone wrong with a guy that's limited, deal originated here (as you have your discord displayed obviously) but went to discord, without contracts?

1. Do not deal with a guy that's LIMITED -> HE CAN'T USE CONTRACTS.
2. DO NOT MAKE DEALS WITHOUT CONTRACTS.
3. Don't complain when you get fucked on discord.

So what are we going to do now?

yeah my bad for not waiting til his account limit expires .

i actually don't want to post this as i've already refunded him but he threatened me to post this in the forum .

also he's a former client , we have contracts before and he paid for the artwork upfront .

it's just recently when i viewed his site that he's using the image even if i already refunded him .
im actually not complaining that i get scammed , i was just alerting my fellow hf member .

thanks for reply tho .

edit : i don't want any trouble so i refunded him even tho my TOS clearly mentioned that i don't do refund but i can fix any unsatisfactory errors .

It doesn't matter you have contracts before, you must use it for every single deal. With this thread, you just admitted that you dealt without contracts, you're both HF members. The issue here is you're both subject to closure now. I'll give you both a chance by just banning you both for a while.
