Thread: The Immortals | Unofficial Group Recruitment

N1ghtm4re - October 20, 2020, 5:35 pm

ABOUT

The Immortals is an Unofficial HF Group that aims to Better the HF Community through Kindness, Comedy, Quality Content, and Assisting others. The Immortals will be based through Brotherhood, Comradery, and Loyalty. The group itself will focus on various topics which include Money Making, Music, Film/Anime/Television, Gaming, etc.

The Immortals will focus on assisting in Reviving Dead HF sections of which we may be knowledgeable in, and assisting in early forum experience for those who are new to the forum.

Members will find comfort in joining a friendly welcoming environment, able to make friends and have a good time amongst their HF peers.

I do intend to eventually buy an Official Group and brand it as Immortals / The Immortals. Until then, we will operate as an Unofficial group and develop ourselves in the meantime.

This is also a New group, and because of that, I am currently the only member.

I like this part the most. I'm down for helping with this. I do this on my own time and would love to see others doing it, too.

I also don't mind assisting in reviving dead HF sections. I don't need a group invite - it'd just be cool to collaborate with other members of your group and help them.

Yanix - November 8, 2020, 2:49 am

Sure thing, if you'd like to join however it wouldn't be much push back; I'm just looking to gather a nice lot of productive, kind individuals.
