Do NOT buy from this guy. He has no sense of time and he completely ripped me off. I bought two assignments from him. He gave me the first assignment an hour after the due date, so I lost 20% on the submission. However, he did produce "decent" quality writing, so I decided to pay him again for another assignment, because I was feeling lazy. For the second assignment, he was asked to build a system around an Service Level Agreement referencing a template he found online. So he told me that he would get it done within 24 hours (and I even paid extra money to make that happen). He sent me the template for submission and it was probably 98% the same as another template I found online. Same paragraphs, same names, and it wasn't even catered to the medical field like I asked for it to be. He basically found someone else's project online and changed a few words. If I submitted this, I would have been kicked out of school for plagiarism. I cussed the dude out over Discord and asked for my money back, naturally. He then uses my cussing as justification for him not to return my money back. Saying that he is acting professional and a "paying customer" who got ripped off and almost submitted plagiarism should be more "professional" if they wanted a refund back. I told him I'm going to open a dispute on Hackforums and leave a bad review on his page. Which is my right to do being a customer. He then told me he is going to negative rep me and try and make me look "stupid" on here for leaving a review. Let's see if he does that.

The instructions were to use a good template to create and SLA, which is exactly what I did. You were quoted for a 2 page SLA, yet I produced a 6 page one. The instructions explicably asked for me to find a good template, which I did. I fulfilled all that was asked of me. If you didn't wish for me to use a template (which the instructions stated), you should have told me. If you wished me to follow a template but to change everything within the template, I would've happily done this. The instructions stated that a "good template" is needed. If I wasn't meant to use a template (despite the instructions you sent saying so), it should've been stated. If you wished me to change all of the wording in the template, again this should've been stated. Don't ask me to use a template, and a good one at that, then when I do start crying that I've used a template. If I wasn't meant to use the template, or everything was expected to be changed - it wouldn't have stated to use a good template. As it would be irrelevant whether the template used was good or bad. As it would all be changed regardless.

Googled template: "A document or file having a preset format, used as a STARTING POINT for a particular application so that the format does not have to be recreated each time it is used"

It doesn't mean COPY PASTE or PLAGIARISM

Thanks for the negative rep for leaving an honest review by the way. At least you delivered on that promise.

Yes. A preset format, a starting point. Then I revised that template, adding in the relevant information in regards to your assignment, to complete the template. Simply going around in circles here. I completed your assignment, as instructed to do. You then started messaging me calling me a retard, lazy, a thief and a liar. I do not need to refund you, as the work I did for you was what was asked. Refunds are at my discretion. If the work was wrong, and instructions weren't what they were, I would've refunded you. However, as I followed the instructions to the tee, and then you start verbally abusing me - I won't be refunding.

No longer replying to your posts. Done my best to resolve this, but I've had enough now. When buying work off sellers in future, make sure the instructions you send, are the ones you want to be followed. Do not message me again asking to complete work - I feel you're a trouble maker and simply want your work completed for free, hence will make up issues when there isn't one.

You sent a plagiarized assignment. End of story. There's no excuse you can make to dispute that fact. You ARE a thief, you ARE lazy, and you ARE a liar. To all potential customers, once again, do NOT purchase anything from this guy.

I tasked brock with completing a 3 1/2 page essay on the book 1984. This was an extraordinarily important 100 point essay for me. Brock was extremely charismatic from the start, I felt like I was working with my own teacher lol. All I needed was to give him some solid assignment info then he was off, I gave him a 48 hour deadline, but he completed it within 40 hours. It literally angers me that there is a nasty review on this post bitching about plagiarism. After I turned my essay into turnitin.com it came up with a 9% similarity match. If you don't know, turnitin.com has a very tough plagiarism software and above 35% is when plagiarism starts to become a possibility. So 9% is nothing.

-Btw this was no easy task, this essay was for an English AP senior class and he knocked it outta the ballpark. Thanks brock, I'll be back :)

I'm Stanley HF's helper bot. This OP (original poster) of this thread wants everyone to see this page and has elected to bump it to the top of the showthread listing. Since HF doesn't want a ton of LQP (Low Quality Posts) this is the best method of bumping your content. There is a small ?yte fee for each bump. Any OP can bump any of their threads on HF from the linked icon on the top of their first post.

If you haven't already read the first post of this thread we encourage you to do so.

Edit: Looks like you fixed it now.

OMARATION - February 2, 2021, 4:21 am

I am waiting for a $100 refund as the work could not be completed.

Thanks

Pragmatic - February 4, 2021, 10:28 am

Terrible person to deal with.

Payed him $160 to complete 3 assignments. (originally was gonna be $320 for 6 assignments, but we started with half first)

3 days go by and he said he will have the first assignmen started. Another day or 2 go by and he said the first 1 would be DONE by tomorow - great news right?

2 more days go by and he asks me to PAY HIM the other $160 for the rest of the assinments because he's short on money. I said I can once i receive the frist assinment at least. ANOTHER 2-3 days go by and he hasn't even sent the first one even though he said IT WAS DONE. He continues to ignore me for a few days until finally saying he will have the first assignment sent to be at the end of the day and the other 2 done by the weekend (in 3-4 days). Close to a week goes by and I still received NOTHING, even though he claimed to have finished the first one.

It wouldn't have been nice if he told me straight up that he needed more time, but he LIED and said he finished it.

He finally sent me the first assignment which was complete garbage and he didn't even finish 1 of the questions. He said " HE doesn't even have to finish anything technically because i didn't start a contract with him" Like what? Imao. I did infact have a contract open which lead me to disputing it.

He claimed to have COVID and that's why he couldn't complete anything.

You had covid for over a month? Last time i checked covid didn't cause people to lie/bullshit.

This isn't about you not being able to complete it as you said - it's about you LYING and telling me an assingment was done while it wasn't. It's about you telling me you'd send it everyday, but didn't.

He then threatens to leave me negative feedback if i didn't remove a post or close a dispute.. like what lol

Vamps - February 17, 2021, 10:30 am opened dispute with him, promised refund but never responded after
