Thread: Favorite music genre? And why?

Chevy - October 26, 2020, 6:46 pm

So as the title suggests, I'm curious as to what the members of this community's favorite music genre is, and why they feel that it is their favorite.

Personally my favorite is Rap / Hip-Hop.

I grew up listening to this type of music in my hometown. The population was split fairly evenly in terms of racial diversity, but the part of town I was from was the opposite race. It grew on me and although I like rock, alternative rock, metal, some R&B, and those sorts.. rap just became a part of me.

How about you?

Whats your favorite genre of music and why is it your favorite?

GingerRed - October 26, 2020, 6:53 pm

I don't got a favorite, music is whatever. Mainstream so gs are obviously alright.

shakur123 - October 26, 2020, 6:58 pm

Brit rock is the best genre. Ian brown and richard ashcroft are my favorites bro, you should listen to them if u have the time ;)

As I say, to each their own my friend.

I love the R&B music for they gets never old and really cool and good to my ears :D
The emotions that have put in the music sounds really awesome and very inspiring.

I can agree with you on that.

R&B is 3rd on my top list.

For me it's hip hop and rap, there's so many different styles and essentially sub genres that you can find artist or songs for literally any mood/feeling/activity.

They incorporate so many different elements, instruments, vocals i love it.

Exactly, my man.

That's prime examples of why I enjoy rap and hip hop so much.

Trance/House, it helps with doing work massively.

That's a great genre to really dwell into focus. I agree with you 100%.

I can't really say specifically what my favorite genre is. I guess it just depends on my mood.

I usually tend to listen to Rap/Hip-Hop, EDM, '90's and early 00's rock.

I honestly love a bunch of different genres and sub genres so it's really hard for me to pick and choose or even list my favorites in order.

Deany - October 27, 2020, 1:43 am

Eurobeat, Jpop, Jrock, Jmetal, literal weeb stuff really

Jinu - October 27, 2020, 6:10 am

I love Blues, Hip-hop, Rap. That doesn't mean I don't listen to other music. I usually love all the music that inspires me.

Scoppa - October 27, 2020, 6:17 am

I only listen to Rap and Hip Hop :3

I don't have a favorite genre. I love a few songs from most genres, especially rap, RnB, hiphop, country, rock, etc.

MarvinMalware - October 27, 2020, 10:34 am

Rap/Hip Hop as well I'd say, however, I'm very open to music and listen to everything from Juice Wrld to Grateful Dead. I grew up on classic rock and country, then as a teen fell into the Strange Music chopper style rap, my guy Tech N9ne. :)

Yin Yang - October 27, 2020, 10:39 am

I'd say Rap / Hip-Hop as well. I really liked OG Snoop and Ice cube with nwa and old school Dr. Dre.

I'm a millennial so it was also nice seeing 50 cent when he was with G-unit and Slim Shady back in the days.

Now, it's all this trap and mumble rap nonsense.

Forensic - October 27, 2020, 10:53 am

Indie music for me is superior. I like all genres mostly though. Rap is so overrated. I grew up on rap and when I matured I was like damn I missed out on so much good music

Dystopia - October 27, 2020, 2:20 pm

I really like house/EDM/dance music cause it's a mood-booster.

rxstvr - October 27, 2020, 4:53 pm

there's a lot of good music out there. don't slap yourself with one genre only. though, sometimes my diverse taste in music makes it hard for me to choose the right track for my mood and i'm always craving for some new tunes.

Believe me when I say that I don't stick to only one genre - but I will admit that it is only one genre that I listen to for the majority of the day.

jecoylecoy - October 27, 2020, 6:27 pm

I love mellow love song music as well as folk and country music.

If I'm going to listen to love song music, my intention is to make babies.

Kill Joy - October 27, 2020, 6:31 pm

Indie / Country / Folk / EDM

You must listen to romantic love songs or instrumental music at night.

Not necessarily, no.

It just depends on whenever I'm in the mood.
