Thread: Method | Automate your leads with Linked In | Easy Clients For Your Digital Agency

AVirtualKinG - October 26, 2020, 11:33 pm

I discovered this method to automating your Linked In to scrape leads and then auto-connect and send out an introductory message.

This method will show you how to automate your LinkedIn connections and send out a custom message with ease and for FREE.

This method will teach you step by step how to use this software.

I have created a short guide to explain the method simply.

I am willing to give away 2 vouch copies to trusted members!

hello and good morning

from what i know, unless you are a premium number you cannot send a message to someone who's not in your circle

also the number of messages are limited anyhow, good luck with the sales

keep safe

The ebook is 5$ for the first 5 people to buy it. Sorry, that was worded weirdly.

Let me know if you have another vouch copy available. I will be more than happy to post a detailed review.
