Thread: Are Runescape Services/account sales allowed?

BrickSquadGG - October 27, 2020, 2:10 pm

I would like to migrate my Runescape store/service over to this website.

I would provide accounts for clients upon their requests and complete services upon request.

Is this allowed?

I am currently offering questing & powerleveling services in a thread already.

If you're looking for a partner let me know - I'm sure we could conduct business.

It's a rough world for Runescape on this forum. Sometimes you get people that are just looking to steal an account and some people will just chargeback money. I do not recommend using PayPal if you do decide to come this way.

Runescape accounts threads go to <https://hackforums.net/forumdisplay.php?fid=309> and if you want to offer services then Service Offerings

If you want to sell virtual items like runescape gold, then post a thread in Virtual Game Items
