Thread: Impostor trying to scam people using my name on Discord - ID: 766436464908435498

? Soufian ? - October 29, 2020, 9:45 am

Hello guys,

I got a random contract from a user today which I cancelled.

After asking why he opened the contract, he told me "I" was dealing with him on Discord.

So it turns out there's an impostor going around on HF adding people's Discord accounts that are in the threads.

So he attempted to scam someone for $50.

I am NOT responsible for any scams caused by this impostor. It's your responsibility to confirm my identity on-site with me. And I ALWAYS use a contract when dealing with HF related users. I will NOT deal without a contract.

This is my REAL discord account:

Discord ID: 255097963733319680

This is a SCAMMER:

Discord ID: 766436464908435498

Username: ? Soufian ?#0001

EDIT:

User seems to be scamming others too:

Just so everyone is aware....This is not me, and my official (albeit, never used) discord is confirmed on my TrustScan (Lrrr#1257)

Whoever the fuck this guy is isn't even using the right Avatar for my discord, idiot.

What a lowlife scum, so I guess the only thing he does is scam on Discord by impersonating HF members? That's so fucking sad, must be a broke kid.
