Bro if you are Isaac from Netherlands, I can agree that these pictures are yours.
Do you still drive the Tesla and The Audi SQ7 2020 ?

PS: The vids in this post made by Perileos were actually made by me 1 year ago, he tried to fool everyone by making you think that it's his own content ?. I can provide proof that those vids are mine if necessary. I don't care if my content gets spread but tryna flex with content that isn't yours and getting reputation for it is kinda sad.

Gimme a close up on that date just, face don't look right to me

I know that Perileos is nothing more but a fraud with some ego issues.. Don't be bothered by it. Although I feel bad for your cat to wear a tiny heavy watch around his tender neck, it's not my choice.

Well done on flexing with your p*ssy haha.

The thread is in Bragging Rights, means OP owns a Cat and his Cat owns a Rolex. What a luxurious cat, LOL!

What a waste of money, 10k€ for a watch, congrats to the owner of the cat to be a sheep the society wants him to be. ?

I just had to do the same... Seeing as we have the same cat, same watch...

Our pussies will live on forever .

By the way, where'd you get that fuckin shirt, that's epic

Bahaha, it's called luxury. Some people work hard enough to be able to afford the finer things in life. Not too mention, the watch I paid 15.5k is now worth 17.5k less than 6 months later, I'd say, it's a decent investment as well.

All the envy that comes from this forum exhausts me, be happy :)

Idk if you know because you bought that timepiece as a flex, but watches go on your wrist.
