I'd be interested if you wanna give me a vouch copy or show me some really good proof that they're lifetime.

You're a brand new account, how can you guarantee this is "lifetime"

Haha idk man a vouch copy will easily boost your sales but you dont want to give one to anyone which is really weird. As far as proof goes, is there some sort of place on the spotify website that shows when your membership expires?

i know im new thats because im just starting selling on the internet.. i always sold to friend irl but then i saw that it would be a good idea to do it on the internet :) and i can guarantee it to you because its just business to me and i make my bread and with lifetime warranty i mean shop warranty but my shop is building up so it will last long :)
