Hi everyone

want sell My BitRat LifeTime

VisualSoft - November 6, 2020, 1:16 pm

you need to contact the owner and Get permission from him to do that.

Correct. This is not allowed and license will be terminated if transferred.

You paid for a lifetime license for your own use, if someone wants to buy a license then they can do it by contacting the seller, you can't just transfer something like that to someone else lmao. Try to put yourself in the seller's shoes and ask that question again.
