Looks great. Especially the black bricks. Are they stickers or what? I want to cover the background of my desktop with that kind of thing.

Prawnster - November 8, 2020, 9:12 am

Looks nice! I hope it comes out exactly how you imagined it.

The Pact - November 8, 2020, 2:52 pm

Hey I couldn't see the video. Are you paying for this to be done or you did it for yourself? Did you buy a home out of online earnings?

Rezon® - November 9, 2020, 4:39 am

Nice dude, I'm thinking about doing the same but mines a new build so space is low.

Nico - November 9, 2020, 9:30 am

What software did you use to model your finishing product? I believe I used something similar in a class during my freshman year of high school. I believe it was Virtual Architect or something.

It's clear OP is faking this. HF members don't use power tools. it's too complicated for their minds.

I wish I wasn't too stingy to do renovations on my house but I get scared about spending the money.

Stixio - February 21, 2021, 2:45 am

I'm so sorry for not updating you guys, lots of things happend, and I forgot.

Wow that's some great work, and I love your style! I'm in the process of doing my place up, it's been so disjointed and delayed over and over but things have started at least. I'm going for some similar kinds of furnishings actually, and I'm gonna pretty much led strip the whole place up because I love those trippy lights and feeling like I live in a 70s trip mixed with the future!

ghostboy - February 21, 2021, 2:03 pm
