I can also get psn cards and other digital goods. The xbox codes aren't region locked because they are bought with euro's. It might not work for UAE and GB because of higher currency value than Euro. I am looking for long-term trade partners who will offer me a good price.

As long as you're willing to use contracts, shouldn't be an issue.

Please contact me on one of the @ provided! Using a contract is no issue to create thrust.

no need to take this high-quality deal off-site

Not interested in slow trading sorry, we can do a few through the site to establish thrust but I am not gonna use this site to trade alot.

Price for these? You have to comply with site rules for every deal on site with contract, or else admin will close your account if you want to circumnavigate that.
