What is your biggest pet peeve(s)?

Mine is definitely when people are going slow in the fast lane.. it's a PASSING lane

Exalted - November 10, 2020, 6:34 am

Slow walkers, I can't for the life of me handle people that are walking as if they're fucking 90.

ButtermilkJesus - November 10, 2020, 6:39 am

I hate when people expect me to do things on their schedule, I.E. somebody messages me late night to do something because they are tired... I'm tired too if you asked me to do it earlier I could've done it on my own time but now we're both upset

I have quite a few, some oddly specific. The first one that comes to mind though is pretty simple, I hate being late, or when someone shows up somewhere late.

Mine is the weirdest one yet; I hate people chewing loudly. Hearing the saliva swish around in their mouth disgusts me. People with no table-etiquette drive me up a wall.

Chewing with their mouth open.... I quiver at the sound and act

Brock Obama - November 10, 2020, 12:27 pm

Unprovoked rudeness.

I think everyone should do their best to get along, and be nice to one another. I understand when people are rude to those they don't like; but to be rude to someone you don't know, or hasn't upset you, really annoys me.

When people make plans with you and then don't follow through, it urks me.

L10N - November 10, 2020, 1:05 pm

People who park their car and take up two spaces?

Doom - November 10, 2020, 1:34 pm

People who chew with their mouth open, its gross man.

Stork - November 10, 2020, 8:41 pm

I cannot stand when people chew with their mouth open.

Deany - November 11, 2020, 12:05 am

Deadbeat buyers who bid on items and then don't pay for them

Rezon ® - November 11, 2020, 12:06 am

People who are slow doing anything, it gets to me!

ncbund - November 13, 2020, 1:54 pm

when people are eating and drag their teeth on the fork

Rezon ® - November 13, 2020, 3:04 pm

Or people DDoS'ing HF, that's annoying too!

BeanieB1 - November 15, 2020, 3:58 pm

Mine is probably the strangest so far, I hate it when people lick/suck on their fingers or spoons.

K1. - November 15, 2020, 3:59 pm

When people stand around lurking near you

That really grinds my gears

When someone asks me a question they already know they answer to. OR when they can easily find the answer in the exact same manner they expect me to.

Same here bro, I get MAJOR road rage

rsx - November 16, 2020, 1:27 pm

I don't have many pet peeves, but I gotta agree with you OP. People who don't keep right except to pass can go straight to hell.
