Thread: How did you spend the last 48 hours? eXceptional - November 15, 2020, 3:59 pm

I got bored and played Pokemon Go all-day. What did you do?

Artisan - November 15, 2020, 4:02 pm

Started watching Assassination Classroom (an anime) coz I needed to keep my mood well. Every couple of episodes, Id check back to see if HF was back to normal or not.

Zexi - November 15, 2020, 4:07 pm

Spent it checking if HF is back 24/7. Call me a nerd that lives in his mothers basement, you won't be wrong.

Unfortunately, My Netflix isn't working anymore. Since Horus God has some issues with his services. I'm sure they will be up in no time.

And have been driving a few hours just for fun!

eXceptional - October 5, 2021, 1:56 pm

Due to the activity. I'm bumping this thread instead of creating a new one.

Edit: I worked all day today. I got a client who needs his e-commerce website done within the next 7 days so I'm working hard on it.

Prettykitty - October 5, 2021, 1:59 pm

I checked emails, had a doctor's appointment, did some kickboxing after. Everything else in between was rest, taking care of pets, and eating. Also cleaned out bottom of the sink cause it was leaking.
On Sunday I took out trash and did laundry, also watched some shows and anime in the past 48 hours. Browsed the internet and chatted with friends on discord a lot in the past 48 hours :)

You got a tough work profile. 40 miles should take about 1 hour approx. You drive 2 hours before and after work. I'm imagining that pain bro. I'm a very lazy person when it comes to traveling. I like exploring and traveling in general but not for work.
