Thread: [Hopefully buying this MEGAYACHT called LUMINOSITY \[RIP KFC Watermelon\]](#)

Sir Bitcoin - November 16, 2020, 11:42 am

Yep, it's going for £225m. And you know what really sold me on it? The name.

Luminosity was the best RAT ever created. Hopefully I can invite KFC to my yacht.

Thoughts?

Since we're both pulling stuff out of our ass..

I'd recommend not buying it. I just bought my 4th one, and even though I got a great deal, I now realize I have no reason to have 4 superyachts and it was a bad financial decision. A good financial decision, per your previous post, would be me giving you $5k BTC to have a $500k BTC return. Unfortunately, I won't make the mistake again - as they say, you learn from your mistakes!

Wait what?

Since when did my Yacht go on sale?

Good heavens, I wish I could afford such a yacht.

?? will be watching you.

Ya know. That's a lot for a Yacht. I think I'd just give that money away or leave it behind for future generations even if I was a billionaire.

I wonder what the true difference in comfort is from a £1m yacht to a £200m yacht.

Guess we'll hear from him again in 12 months.

Why would anything happen to such a high quality member?

Wow. Who on HF could afford such a beautiful thing? :D

metamorphosis - May 30, 2021, 5:38 am very nice yacht but not sure if I would spend 225m on that even if I had the dough

A Nobody - May 30, 2021, 6:43 am

What an absolute waste of money.

You should use the money to pump bitcoin.
