Thread: Project idea - If you like gaming/call of duty I want your opinion

Just randomly brainstorming and shit during real gamer hours and I thought of a brilliant idea:

What if there was a Super Group of Call of Duty Cold War service providers

I'd be the manager, modders, bot lobbies, calling cards, war zone wins, and simply 2XP codes.

Who would be interested?

Its in the works, currently gathering service providers followed by getting GFX, to allow better marketing it will be for all gaming service needs and not just call of duty.
