Thread: No alerts from ignored users ?

Why do I still get alerts from ignored list ppl??

Shits annoying. Hence why they are on my ignore, in hopes of stopping the annoyance.

Came back from my 50 day vacation with 70 alerts, 55 of which were from one user tagging me in some shitty group lounge thread boosting his post count. Subsequently added him to my ignore, and I am still getting the alerts.

Only way to stop the alerts would be to turn off alerts for @mentions in posts I guess? Shitty. Very shitty.

I suggest no alerts at all from ignored users. Thanks

Weird but I have always received them from ignored users.

I think this is a good suggestion considering the whole point of having the Ignore list is so you can legitimately ignore them and they can't mention you, etc.

We'll make this happen shortly. Thanks.
