Thread: OnlyFans.. but teach how to cook.

Asgard - November 29, 2020, 9:43 am

So, scrolling along Facebook the other day I come across a meme that said 'OnlyFans.. but I teach you how to cook. OnlyPans.' ..

So, as always my curiosity got the best of me and I decided to navigate to onlypans.com ..

Whoa to my surprise, the domain is actually legitimate and it's on the market for a starting bid of $1,495 USD.

What do you all think about this? I thought it was absolutely hilarious.

I wonder if that's actually a good investment opportunity.

OnlySimps would also be a good ideas for a gag around OnlyFans ?

Juoku - November 29, 2020, 10:15 am

Lol that's a cool idea but tbh I can see the potential but I don't think it'll work, atleast not without good advertising and some good user base with good content.

Good luck if you decide to go for it!!

That is quite funny, but I am unsure about how much money that domain would actually produce :D

Naked cooking with a lot of advertising would be sure to work.

This is seriously a nice joke and a parody of onlyfans. Someone had a sense of humor??

Seems pricey. You can get 300 different titties for that.

Not really sure that's the whole point here, lol.

I honestly believe it would start #Trending in no time if someone actually spent the money towards purchasing the domain and then advertisement.

A hell of an opportunity for a web content creator/culinary artist if you ask me.

Buy OnlyScams.com and redirect it to the HF Deal Dispute forum.

That is actually really a funny story.
