Just gave it a watch and I must say you have some wonderful shots and editing, really gave it a chilled out vibe. The location looks absolutely blissful I really need a trip to somewhere like that soon. Could you tell me where that bar with the shisha's in the pool overlooking the ocean was? Definitely putting that on my list.

Gonna check out some more of your video's once I've finished off some more coding.

It's very expensive, especially on the popular islands like Santorini and Mykonos etc. I would suggest shorter stays there as hotel stays easily run up to a couple hundred $ a night. If you go off the beaten path a bit and visit less touristic islands you will definitely find a LOT cheaper places where the nature might be just as beautiful, but a bit less luxury.

The video was elegant—small suggestion: The video gets a little stutter in the cut scenes. I think you need to change some settings in your video editor before export your videos.

You have earned 1 view, 1 like, 1 subscriber, and a comment from my side. Keep up your good work and all the best.

I just opened the video, left a like, comment, subscribe and I'll let it play until the end.
I have about 10-15 youtube channels (not spam accounts - legit channels with some content on them), if you're interested in doing this with all my other accounts, reply or message me. :)
Good luck with your channel.
