Thread: Hide Awards Bug

Kill Joy - November 30, 2020, 12:08 pm

Small bug. I paid 100 Bytes to hide awards on my profile. Just received a ruby egg and my awards are no longer hidden.

they want you to swap that rich bitch with the purple diamond so then your first 2 rows are all diamonds worth about $9040.

award hiding only costs 100 bytes. kappa.

Can you give it another try? It should be fixed now.

He meant they should still be hidden.

Add an egg or or award. Or we'll have to wait until I randomly get an egg.

I know exactly what he meant and my post is saying that I resolved the issue and ask him to try the process again. Which he did.
Then we test that it stays hidden after receiving an award while hidden. Which I just did.

Thank you for the quick fix.
