We have swapped out a few donation awards and have even added a new award.

The "Heart of Generosity" is a $50 donation.

Meh would probably be perfect for the people trying to make a transition intersection between Diamonds awards and Hearts awards.

Im aware. I donated several times and had diamonds removed when Omni was changing rewards and removing r00t. Not really up for donating again for another possible loss. But you bug ballers, just ffs thats dedication

Meanwhile, everyone didn't notice the 2 other new awards

Doxicity - December 2, 2020, 12:35 pm

I got $1 and a bunch of virtual clout for whoever can remember who the first user to buy the Grand Amethyst was?

That was a great night for me, PMed Omni asking for a vouch copy of GA and got my dunce award lmao.

Honestly the day I was finally making enough money to comfortably get the Grand Amythest felt amazing.
No doubt the best award for anyone willing to show their support for the riches they've made here.

one is gay, literally. (which I'll probably get eventually. #LGBTQI+) the other is impossible to get unless you are in a crew that actually cares about HUM. lol.

Or maybe someone has been preparing for this kind of thing. Waiting. Ready to spam click and kill your hum. O.O

You lucky you have the black diamond. Omni removed mines when changing the old r00t rank out.
I want it back >,<

And they never will. That's intentional to make it harder for someone else to use them. Same goes for the group images. I actually add the background color to avoid the transparency.

No doubt the best award for anyone willing to show their support for the riches they've made here. The GA has always been one of my fav donation awards, same with the Bitcoin one.

Probably will get the GA at some point... learned a lot of skills off HF since i've been here, so its worth it imo.

EDIT: Who remembers when the Bitcoin award used to be 1 BTC?

Yeah I've had irl friends give me shit for spending $1000 on some pixels. But to me it was a return on years of business ventures and lots and lots of money made and knowledge acquired around this forum. And honestly back then it held high social/business status imo. Made people more likely to deal/do exchanges with you, which was completely worth the $1k I spent on it.

Lorem Ipsum - December 2, 2020, 1:44 pm

I wish I didn't wasted the last $100 BTC that I had in my wallet.

Will restock soon and donate at least $50 BTC for a new award and little support for HF, too!
