Thread: Looking for an inexperienced or experienced partner who has an RDP

GOSSIP GUY - December 3, 2020, 1:56 pm

Hi guys. I'm looking for a partner. This is actually a good opportunity to make money and learn how to spread, cash out and have fun! :}

If you have an RDP, I will supply the VPN, RAT's, bots, spreading methods and give you a good cut out of each profit.

Please let me know if you wanna do this! ??

RDPs are like $5 a month, if you can't get one, why would anyone assume you can make them money? You even just made a thread in a different section asking for free web templates.

You're right to point this out. Thanks!

I have an RDP but it's in Arabic and I can't read anything. Where do you get them for $5/m? I'm also doing this to meet new people and socialise. Sad, I know.

Possibly in the premium section where there are hundreds of RDP sellers? Also even if the RDP was $40 a month and you have this big money making method and couldn't afford that I would have zero confidence you have any method making good money in the first place.
