Why do you wish to join Panthers? Sick of being a nomad on the forum already, need to start associating myself with a clique. Makes your time on here a thousand times more enjoyable when you're kicking it with a regular squad of members.

What would joining Panthers mean to you? It would mean I wouldn't be as bored when I lounge hop on this addictive time wasting website/

Why would YOU be a good fit for the group? I'm an oldfag, I've been in more groups than I can remember. I know the deal, I'm funny (I think) and I'm good at computer.

In one to three sentences, tell us something about yourself: I'm learning to play the didgeridoo. My favourite colour is blue. Panthers would be a good crew.

Anything else you would like to say? Pick me xxoxoxo

To whom it may concern,

Lrrr is one of the most notable, trustworthy, and high quality users I have ever gotten the opportunity to mentor on Hackforums. He came to me around Jan 2018, so I have been his mentor for almost 3 years now. Within that time I have been able to gain a sense of this user's true potential, work ethic, and can whole heartedly recommend him for any HF user group.

Lrrr has shown me he has what it takes to be HQ. He isn't autistic. He isn't toxic. He isn't annoying. He isn't a dumb ass mofo. I am very proud to say I helped shape him into the person he is today. Under my counselor and mentorship, he has started from no where and gotten to the top of the top. He is now a living legend around these forums.

I believe Lrrr has what it takes to be a Panther. Should you have any questions, please feel free to f*ck off.

Sincerely,
- LL

Crazy to see how many new members this group has gotten in a little over a month. So much activity from a large number of users. I'm glad to have been a part of this group. I've met quite a few great members and have had some very successful transactions done with quite a few of them.

There seems to be quite a bit of controversy surrounding Panthers recently, however, I have had no issues with anybody thus far and don't expect to be having any issues in the future. Looking forward to continuing with this group and planning to contribute more than I have been as of recent. I've just been busy as fuck.

Get those entries in, guys. Our Discord chat is always poppin'.

guess! and today's my birthday

Why would YOU be a good fit for the group? I enjoy being a HQ Goblin!

In one to three sentences, tell us something about yourself: Gandhi's quote, "The best way to find yourself is to lose yourself in the service of others." was my second tattoo out of my current 26 (?) right after I got Knuckles the Hedgehog smoking a blunt across my ribcage..

Anything else you would like to say? Carole Baskins killed her husband. Cannabis is a medicine.

Why do you wish to join Panthers? Because the owner Zeus gives great advice and seems like he cares to help others, as well as wanting to be a part of a large organization where people share ideas. Enjoying the color of the group is only a bonus.

What would joining Panthers mean to you? It would give me more of a reason to continue to stay as active as I've been this month (online 5+ hours a day) also would give me something else to invest my time to.

Why would YOU be a good fit for the group? I would be a good fit because I am a helper, extremely generous and courteous towards others, and I have a very active thought process and will maintain conversations throughout the sub forums as well as the group chat.

In one to three sentences, tell us something about yourself: I'm a Canadian who just recently found a love for HackForums, I enjoy researching the methods and content I find here, I've been looking for a place to share my ideas and future business endeavors, as well as listen to others' ideas. I've got a fairly active lifestyle but do enjoy spending my free time online, specifically playing Call of Duty among other games, as well as scouring the internet.

Anything else you would like to say? I would like to say thanks for hosting an event like this, without charging submission fees and leaving so many opportunities for people to be a part of such a large group, that some people may not have access to funds to join otherwise.

I'm Stanley HF's helper bot. This OP (original poster) of this thread wants everyone to see this page and has elected to bump it to the top of the showthread listing. Since HF doesn't want a ton of LQP (Low Quality Posts) this is the best method of bumping your content. There is a small 75¢ fee for each bump. Any OP can bump any of their threads on HF from the linked icon on the top of their first post.

If you haven't already read the first post of this thread we encourage you to do so.

Thanks,
Stanley
